Be it resolved....

Dear Friends,

I laughed when, in the announcements on the First Sunday of Christmas and the last Sunday of 2012, it was said that 2012 might be a year we would all be glad to kick to the curb. At the time it looked very like we were headed over the “fiscal cliff”, for many their Christmas had been tinged with the sadness of people dying who were near and dear and the aftermath of the 12th mass shooting of the year involving gun violence and children. In your life as a community of faith, your beloved rector had announced her unexpected retirement not long after 2012 began. You had already set an ambitious goal for raising $1 million dollars in a capital campaign, and much of the program and ministry year remained to be implemented and planned. It was a daunting time to step into your lives as your first interim in over 16 years.

As I drove home on the 30th, I wondered about 2012 and its blessings and its challenges. After all, you had been willing to risk offering me my first taste of parish ministry in nine years with all the possibility for good and disaster that might have brought. Transition and search, ambitious fund-raising goals for both the capital campaign and annual giving, trying out new ways of undertaking tried and true events and programs, changing the service schedule, holding a service at VTS again, lay and ordained leadership transitions in many programs, rethinking adult education and the timing of Sunday School, trying to maintain an extraordinary level of giving to those in need, amid it all there was much that was challenging and didn't always go well. Speaking quite personally, there was much that richly blessed me and I hope all of us. What I realized is that blessing and challenge (if not curse) grow together often in a tangled thicket like the wheat and weeds. Our task is not to separate them, but to reflect and understand what we learn from each and the way each is related to the other.

What I reluctantly admitted to God in the car was how much I thrived and learned in circumstances that were, and are, trying, if not defeating. What I learned had less to do with “not going there again” and more to do with my lifetime formation as a child of God. A number of years ago, Charles Price wrote a general thanksgiving prayer for what was then the new Book of Common Prayer. A single petition has stuck to me like glue ever since I first read it, “We thank you for those disappointments and failures that lead us to acknowledge our dependence on you alone.” To me that best summarizes the relationship of the “tasks which demand our best efforts...and accomplishments that satisfy and delight us” with what fails us and what we fail at. The year of our Lord 2012 probably was more challenging than many. Before I kick it to the curb, my resolution is to learn all that I can from what makes me eager to let it go so that I can faithfully, as well as eagerly embrace the New Year. Be it resolved!

Yours in Christ,
Mary

our services times will change. NO 8:00 a.m. service – the one morning service will be at 9:15 (Rite I), with nursery and Godly Play. The main service will be at 2:00 p.m., with the Rt. Rev. EARLY CHRISTIANS EXPAND TO 1823 PUB

Beginning January 8, this four-decade old group will meet at the VTS 1823 Pub on the first Tuesday of the month at 5:00 p.m. All Immanuelites are invited! The weekly meetings at 6:30 a.m. in the Fairchild room will continue. If you have questions, please see or call Betty Wanamaker (703) 684-5807 or Andy Biache (703) 836-6853

ARE YOU CALLED TO VESTRY SERVICE? Then our five departing members — Susan Gilbertson, Martha Shimkin, Laura Snow, Bryan Phillips and Senior Warden Tom Kerns — would love to hear from you by January 15..

On January 27th at the parish annual meeting, we will again elect fellow parishioners to a three-year term. This 12-member group, working with our clergy, makes decisions about the life of this parish, its worship and programs, its staffing and the well-being of the physical plant on behalf of us all. This "Class of 2013" will see Immanuel on the Hill through a pivotal period, as we call a new Rector and deploy the Capital Campaign funds to improve Zabriskie Chapel in 2013 and help us imagine a new worship life at the seminary's new Immanuel Chapel in 2015.

Serving on Vestry can be a richly rewarding experience. It offers a chance to "go deeper" — to think about worship and issues affecting the church, to connect with new friends in the pews, and to use leadership muscles in God's service in our parish home.

ANNUAL PARISH MEETING IS SUNDAY JANUARY 27th.

All are invited and encouraged to come hear the highlights of 2012 and exciting plans for 2013 from your clergy, treasurer, wardens and Vestry stewards. Child care will be provided during the meeting portion.

We'll start with a POTLUCK LUNCH in the parish hall about 11:15 or 11:30 a.m., at the conclusion of the 10 a.m. service. It's always a great time for fellowship and meeting new people.

Here's what you can bring to share with all, arranged by surname:

A to C: Desserts! (Why not start with them?)

D to M: Side dishes: All sorts of vegetable, fruit, pasta or grain salads, vegetable casseroles, deviled eggs, baked beans, cheeses or dips and crackers, etc.

N to Z: Main course dishes: Casseroles, sandwiches, quiche, chicken/tuna salads, pasta dishes, sliced ham or chicken, vegetarian specialties, etc.

Drop your offering by the kitchen any time from 9:30 a.m. on, and we'll keep it hot/cold until serving time. Questions? Want to help? Contact Mary-Jo Cooney (703/212-8442 mary-jo.cooney@comcast.net) or Connie Kurz (703/370-0062 cgkurz@aol.com).

ALIVE! FOOD DRIVE

January is one of the two months when Immanuel is responsible for donating food to the Alive! Food Pantry. The need is great – the program served over 750 families in September and October alone. Please bring any non-perishable items and leave them in the box in the Narthex. While ALL non-perishable items are welcome, the following items are especially needed: Baby food, dried milk, crackers (any kind), tea and instant coffee, tuna and canned meat, jello, complete pancake mix (the kind that needs only water), pancake syrup, jelly, especially large jars and peanut butter. Checks are also appreciated and will be used to buy fresh meat, eggs, and produce from the Capital Area Food Bank. Make checks payable to ICOH, with Alive! Food Program on the memo line. If you have any questions, please call Ginny Johnstone at 703-845-5745. Thanks!

DISCERNMENT COMMITTEE UPDATE:

The search for a new Rector marches on as the Discernment Committee continues to review candidates to find the superior few whom we will pursue in earnest. Wendy John, the Committee Chair, briefed the Vestry on 5 January as to our progress, and as one might expect there was a significant influx of applications right up to the closing of the application window on 7 January. One of the next steps will be for the Committee to familiarize themselves with Skype so that we can hold “face-to-face” interviews with those candidates whom the committee determines by consensus are in the first rank of applicants. The selection process will then continue with visits by a smaller number of candidates, who will see ICOH first hand. Then Discernment Committee members will go and visit an even smaller group of candidates at their home parishes. This all leads to the Committee’s recommendation to the Vestry of a single candidate. The Vestry will then discuss and make the “Call” to the preferred candidate with Bishop Johnston’s approval. We are several months from that point. Please feel free to direct any general questions on the process to members of the Committee (Wendy John, Caroline Bergmark, Tom Brown, Governor Burke, Jim Clausen, Carrie Cuddy, Barbara Currie, Tom Harris, Doug Henry, Chandley McDonald, Eileen Monnin-Kirby, Martha Sedgwick) with the understanding that certain details of the search cannot be divulged.

GRACE AND GRATITUDE: Belated, but very sincere thanks to the individuals who participated in the fall garden clean up day – Phyllis Ginger, Doug Onley, Wendy and Doug John, Mary Ann Sutherland and Waide Egener, Bruce Morton, Sara Fine, Lisa Yount, Barbara and George Currie, Warren Phillips, Tom Kerns, Andy Biache, Louisa and John Smucker, Chris von Schoening. Also, with special appreciation to Gilma

Balcarcel who coordinated and translated for the extra help provided by Saldemar and Solomon. Thanks also goes to Eloise Payne of the Early Christians group for donating two new lamp shades in the Fairchild Room. Very sincere appreciation goes to Stefanie Reponen for always being able to step up to help Jennifer – especially this last week when she was away in Florida attending a family funeral. “Stefanie, it made it much easier for me to be present for Rod’s family to know that you were attending to things here in the office.”

God's Covenants with God's People

Lenten Retreat 2013

Holy Cross Abbey

March 8-10

God seeks out humanity from the moment we are created, establishing covenants with us so that our relationship with God will thrive and we will be holy people. This retreat will explore God's covenants with God's people and how we might keep them in lives that tempt us in every way to break them. Our retreat leader will be the Rev. Mary Sulerud.

The Immanuel Lenten retreat will be at Holy Cross Abbey in the foothills of the Shenandoah Mountains by the Shenandoah River on a 1200 acre farm near Berryville, Virginia. The Cistercian monks of Holy Cross Abbey have been praying on the Berryville property since 1950; retreat participants will benefit from this location steeped in prayer as they explore the retreat theme. Cistercians observe silence at all times to aid reflection, prayer, and listening to God. Much of the time outside retreat program sessions will be in silence. For more information about Holy Cross Abbey, consult the website <http://www.virginiatrappists.org/>.

The retreat will begin on Friday afternoon, March 8, shortly before the evening meal and will end after the noon meal on Sunday, March 10. The $300.00 registration fee includes all materials, comfortable accommodations, individual rooms each with a bathroom, and all meals.

Two scholarships given in memory of Charles Willis are available; please contact the rector for scholarship assistance.

Registration is limited to 15 persons; please reserve your space now using the form in the Almond Tree.
