The Seven-Day-a-Week-Church

I admire some of the goals and role of a Cathedral in a medieval city. A lot of community life revolved around the space. Even for those who might not have attended Church services, at least not very often, they still came to the Cathedral for community activities and major events. You may have noticed that there is more and more activity around Zabriskie Chapel. This is due both to parish events and the events of outside groups that meet in our facilities. This is a little extension of the same medieval principle.

First, our own events are many and varied. In addition to all of our activities on Sunday, each weekday morning we offer Morning Prayer, a quiet, centered way to start the day with prayer and Scripture (see description on page 3). On Wednesday evenings there is a Eucharist at 6:30, followed by Bible Study. We are considering adding another weekday Eucharist soon. In the Spring we had a four-week session of the School for the Spirit, which met on Wednesday evenings for dinner and several different classes. The Early Christians meet (early) on Wednesday mornings, continuing their decades-long tradition of reading and discussing books touching on Theology. The growing Benedictine Group meets monthly. There is choir practice Thursday night, and regular committee meetings almost every week. Of course, the pumpkin patch will also be starting up soon, which will run every day for a month. Our dedicated staff arrives every day to orchestrate, plan, and manage the many facets of parish life. The Vestry meets monthly to oversee our finances, property, and general mission and ministry. Volunteers come in to help stuff bulletins and newsletters, and I'm sure I am forgetting much more.

Second, the many groups that meet here keep the place hopping. Our new Valley Drive Cooperative Preschool is here every weekday. The Washington Metropolitan Philharmonic Orchestra rehearses on Sunday evenings in the Parish Hall. Alcoholics Anonymous meets on Friday evenings. A Muslim community meets for Friday prayers in the Parish Hall. A Dignity chapter, for Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender Roman Catholics, meets in the Chapel for Eucharist on Saturday evenings. A fitness group affiliated with the INOVA Health System meets in the Parish Hall. Other groups meet here, as well, including garden clubs, Girl Scouts, and the Seminary Hill Neighborhood Association. There are also occasional Yoga classes, led by our own Denise Freeland, and yet another outside fitness group.

Above it all rises the steeple, topped by the Cross, which is so fitting. Named explicitly or not, everything that we do is aimed towards the glory of God in Christ, and for the healing and up building of God's beloved people. Sometimes a lot goes on right under our noses! Imagine what we can do when the new Chapel is completed. . .but let us never forget this guiding Scripture: "Unless The Lord builds the house, their labor is in vain who build it" (Psalm 127:1).

See you in Church,
Randy

The Carters' phone number remains the same (703.307.9955) while their address has changed: 1200 Old US 70 West, Black Mountain, NC 28711. Crisps

APPLE CRISP MAKING TIME! One of our all time big sellers at the Pumpkin Patch is our famous apple crisps. These take many hands to put together and you have a chance to help. TAKING NAMES FOR THE WAITLIST FOR THE ADVENT RETREAT:

The 15 spaces for the Immanuel Advent Retreat are filled, but we are taking names for a waitlist in case of cancellations. Please contact Jennifer Addington, our Parish Administrator, if you would like to be placed on the waitlist. No payment is required unless a space becomes available, and then you will be contacted.

The collects (collectives or community prayers) of the Prayer Book are designed to teach the Church as well as petition the Lord. During our time together we will learn to listen to what the collects are saying to us and focus with special intent on the four Advent Collects. The dozens of collects throughout the Prayer Book will be ours for reflection and meditation. Our retreat leader will be the Rev. Frank Wade, an Immanuel parishioner and an experienced retreat leader, author and teacher.

The Immanuel Advent retreat will be at Holy Cross Abbey in the foothills of the Shenandoah Mountains by the Shenandoah River on a 1200 acre farm near Berryville, Virginia. The Cistercian monks of Holy Cross Abbey have been praying on the Berryville property since 1950; retreat participants will benefit from this location steeped in prayer as they explore the retreat theme. Cistercians observe silence at all times to aid reflection, prayer, and listening to God. During the Advent Retreat, silence will be observed except in the program sessions. For more information about Holy Cross Abbey, consult the website: <http://www.virginiatrappists.org/>.

The retreat will begin on Friday afternoon, December 12, shortly before the evening meal and will end after the noon meal on Sunday, December 14. Participants needing a ride to the Abbey may contact the retreat carpooling coordinator, Carla Murray, at tigmurray08@gmail.com or 703-751-9241.

The $300.00 registration fee includes all materials, comfortable accommodations, individual rooms each with a bathroom, and all meals. Two scholarships given in memory of Charles Willis are available; please contact the Rector for scholarship assistance.

"ANIMEALS" Senior Services of Alexandria and the Animal Welfare League of Alexandria have teamed up to introduce a new program for lower income senior pet owners who live in the City of Alexandria, VA.

The "Animeals" program delivers cat or dog food to the pet owner's residence on the second Thursday of each month. Each senior receives either 10 cans of wet food or 10 pounds of dry food (kibble) for their animal. They will work to match special dietary requests. Please share the attached flyer with any members of your community who may be interested in participating in the program.

For more information contact MaryAnne Beatty at communications@seniorservicesalex.org or call 703-836-4414, ext 13.

IMMANUAL SENIOR MINISTRY LAUNCHES FRIENDLY VISITOR PROGRAM.

Are you looking for a meaningful volunteer opportunity that can be balanced with a busy schedule? Consider joining the "Friendly Visitors," who bring friendship and companionship to Alexandria's seniors through scheduled weekly visits to their homes. This volunteer program is sponsored by Senior Services of Alexandria. Its goal is to relieve the loneliness and isolation felt by many homebound, elderly residents.

Volunteers must pass a criminal background check, attend a one-hour training session, and agree to visit their assigned senior weekly for 1-2 hours. You will be introduced to a senior who shares your interests. Then, you're ready to schedule visits at a mutually convenient time. You may use your visit to read together, reminisce, discuss current events, play board games, walk, or share a hobby.

To volunteer as a Friendly Visitor, or to refer a friend or neighbor who might benefit from these visits, contact Laura Snow at thesnowfamily@verizon.net.

PUMPKIN SUNDAY IS RIGHT AROUND THE CORNER! We are only days away from launching Pumpkin Patch 2014: Immanuel's one and only fundraiser for our Outreach program.

As you know, ALL of the profits of the Pumpkin Patch go to Outreach, to support charities working locally, nationally, and internationally. A successful Pumpkin Patch will help us reach even further to assist communities in need.

It's a huge project, and we need your help!

What can you do?

YOU CAN sign up to work in the Pumpkin Patch in October. The signup board is in the church narthex (entry), and there are still plenty of options to fit your calendar. If you haven't done this before, don't worry: we will provide instructions and reminders.

YOU CAN join your fellow parishioners on PUMPKIN SUNDAY OCTOBER 5 to help unload pumpkins. Immanuel will be celebrating Mass-on-the-Grass at 10:00 that morning, and as soon as the service is over, we will start unloading -- so wear comfortable working clothes. (And mark your calendar for October 15, beginning at 3pm to help unload the second two trucks!)

YOU CAN start cooking and baking for the Patch. Soups and baked goods provide a substantial portion of our profit! There's a "Baking & Cooking for the Pumpkin Patch" guide and standard quart containers for soups in the narthex under the Pumpkin Patch signup board. Please use the soup containers -- we've learned this size and type works best for both cooks and customers. Baked goods can be packaged as you choose. For all food items, please don't forget the LIST OF INGREDIENTS (which helps avoid food allergy issues).

YOU CAN pick up yard signs and car signs in the narthex on Pumpkin Sunday, October 5. These are a most effective way to communicate that the patch is open for business. The yard signs will have more competition from political signs this year, so place them strategically.

YOU CAN help spread the word about Immanuel's Pumpkin Patch. For a start, you can tell your neighbors, friends, relatives, coworkers, and anybody else you meet that they can help the world by buying their pumpkins at our Patch. You can "like" (and share!) our "Pumpkin Patch at Immanuel Church on the Hill" Facebook site. And you can download a one-page flyer to distribute, email, or post from www.icoh.net -- just click on the big orange PUMPKINS! button and look for "one-page flyer."

AND YOU CAN have fun with pumpkins in October! For more information, contact Jamie Conrad, Pierre Shostal, Jim Snow, John von Senden, or Rick Glassco at Outreach@icoh.net

Morning Prayer

WHY WE DO WHAT WE DO A column looking at some of the things we do when we gather for worship.

Daily Morning Prayer: We gather weekdays at 9:30 a.m. in Zabriskie Chapel for Morning Prayer; to read psalms and canticles, proclaim the Word of God through scripture, and to offer prayers: for the Church; the world; our local community, parish, family and friends; to give thanks for those celebrating birthdays; and to remember our members using the directory as our cycle of prayer. We, as Anglicans and Episcopalians, believe in "Lex orandi, Lex credendi," which loosely translated means 'praying shapes believing.' Prayer is intimate personal communication with God, either privately or corporately; when we share with God our concerns and take time to listen to what God is saying to us. Different individuals, lay and ordained, lead each day while others read the appointed lectionary lessons. We all learn by doing together, and hope that you will gather with us when you can. Please come join us.
