Canoe a Canoe a Canoe (the post-event Report)

On Sunday, Sept 15th, we will invite John so that we can say “Arrivederci, John Hogg!”

On Sunday Sep 15th, John Hogg returns to ICOH so that we can say good-bye.

Mark this one on your calendar:

ARRIVEDERCI, John Hogg! – Sunday, September 15, 2019

Think about how to best tell John – “Arrivederci!”

Maye a few more verses of The Ballad of John Hogg, or a series of our favorite memories (e.g., Shrinemont in the Snow, BBQ at 4:30 AM). Try out these Ballad verses . . .

THE BALLAD OF JOHN HOGG, THE BBQ MAESTRO

Refrain (TRACK Big Bad John by Jimmy Dean)

John Hogg . . . John Hogg . . . John Hogg
The Barbeque Maestro of the EYC
His smokin’ legend seared for Eternity
Barbeque John, Barbeque John, Barbeque John

Verse 1

Here's the story, you will see
How John aimed to feed the EYC
Now if he ain't Barbeque's Best Top Dog
How come his name's . . . John Hogg?

Refrain

Verse 2

John went to BJs drivin' his rig
Say Mr. Butcher Man, need 400 pounds of pig
When smokin' those pigs, John's the boss
And 'specially when it comes to the Hogg Family sauce

Refrain

Verse 3

John kept smokin', makin' that Q just right
His crew kept cookin' all day and into the night
They smoked 'til they saw the risin' sun
Then John sang out, "I think this Q's almost done"

Refrain

Verse 4

Now smokin' and pickin' the pork's a drill
Brewing the Hogg Family sauce, that's the skill
What's in that sauce, John won't say
If he told ya' the Family secret, then he'd have to shoot ya'.

Refrain

Verse 5

Now Peter and Silas, they look just the same
Gotta live up to the Hogg Family name
To be Barbeque maestros, what you say?
Peter and Silas, no worry 'cause it's in your DNA

Refrain

Verse 6

Telling this story didn't take long
Kinda easy when you put it in a song
At the end of our ballad you should cheer
Lookin' forward to John Hogg's Barbeque next year.

Refrain

EUCHARIST IN THE ORCHARD. On Sunday Sep 22nd, it's the EYC Eucharist in the Orchard & Apple Picking. This will be our 3rd year headed to Stribling's – everyone's favorite event.

The caravan rolls out of the Zabriskie Chapel parking lot at 9:30 AM. Stribling Orchard is about 1 hour away.

Please make sure to sign-up in advance. $10 should be sufficient for purchasing picked apples.

EYC Eucharist in the Orchard and Apple Picking September 22th!

All EYC invited! We will meet at 9:30 in the Zabriskie Chapel parking lot and then carpool to Stribling Orchard in Markham, Virginia. There we will celebrate Eucharist in the Orchard, enjoy a picnic lunch, and go apple picking! Lunch will be provided, bring money for any apples you wish to pick and keep.

Please RSVP to Carrie Cuddy, carriecuddy@verizon.net, no later than September 18th so we can plan transportation. Parents are welcome and encouraged to join us.

THE BREAKFAST CLUB RETURNS. Yep! The Breakfast Club returns on Sunday, September 29th. Check the EYC Fall 2019 Calendar below.

Invite all 2016-17 EYCers to

THE BREAKFAST CLUB
Melon, Fresh OJ, Scrambled Eggs, Sausage, Waffles with Maple Syrup, and Pastries

Sunday, September 18th at 10:15 a.m. – ZABRISKIE CHAPEL KITCHEN

Respondez s'il vous plait (which means, please tell us in advance whether you're coming to breakfast)
RSVP by email to John Hogg at jhogg@ICOH.net or call John at (703) 370-6555 Ext. 7

Who remembers the first gathering of The Breakfast Club? Here's the postcard that went out in September 2016 telling the Parish about "The Mad CHEFS of the EYC." This was three years ago.

The Mad Chefs will return to the EYC! But what will their new Postcard look like? Who will arrive as the Surprise Guest Speakers?

We're recruiting breakfast chefs. Tell Kameran Onley or Carrie Cuddy that you're interested in the Kitchen Detail and Chef Brigade behind The Breakfast Club – unless it's only a bowl of Frosted Flakes, breakfast does not make itself.

CANOE A CANOE A CANOE – The Report after the Event. Success on (and in) the Potomac! The EYC paddlers assembled on Sunday, September 8th for the River and Marsh Exploration. The send-off began with the Blessing of the Fleet by not one but two Reverends Alexander (Patty and Randy). The blessing proved necessary as the first canoe rollover came only minutes later. The Fleet, however, quickly regrouped, and then headed south towards Dyke Marsh. Ninety minutes later, the first returning ICOH EYC canoers appeared on the horizon.

A few obvious questions – checking the paddlers to the left, seems that one paddle has vanished. How did that happen? (There’s a back story here.) The paddlers offered a replacement log that they pulled from the River. Nice try! Whatever. Is that a heron in the background?

The experienced trio below led the Fleet out and was first to return, chanting as they power-paddled back to the Bel Haven Marina – PIZZA-PIZZA-PIZZA (okay, some editorial embellishment here.) They must have been hungry.

Their food demand was soon answered. All 17 EYC canoers plus the accompanying support team of EYC Advisors and Parents retired to PRIMO’s for pizza and more. Yeah!

Thanks to Jeannie and Carrie for making this River and Marsh Exploration a huge success. Great way to launch the EYC Season.
