The First Lesson: Exodus 16:2-4, 9-15

The whole congregation of the Israelites complained against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness. The Israelites said to them, “If only we had died by the hand of the Lord in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the fleshpots and ate our fill of bread; for you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill this whole assembly with hunger.”

Then the Lord said to Moses, “I am going to rain bread from heaven for you, and each day the people shall go out and gather enough for that day. In that way I will test them, whether they will follow my instruction or not.”

Then Moses said to Aaron, "Say to the whole congregation of the Israelites, 'Draw near to the Lord, for he has heard your complaining.'" And as Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the Israelites, they looked toward the wilderness, and the glory of the Lord appeared in the cloud. The Lord spoke to Moses and said, "I have heard the complaining of the Israelites; say to them, 'At twilight you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall have your fill of bread; then you shall know that I am the Lord your God.' "

In the evening quails came up and covered the camp; and in the morning there was a layer of dew around the camp. When the layer of dew lifted, there on the surface of the wilderness was a fine flaky substance, as fine as frost on the ground. When the Israelites saw it, they said to one another, "What is it?" For they did not know what it was. Moses said to them, "It is the bread that the Lord has given you to eat."

The Word of the Lord

Response: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 78:23-29 Attendite, popule

- 23 So he commanded the clouds above * and opened the doors of heaven.
- 24 He rained down manna upon them to eat * and gave them grain from heaven.
- 25 So mortals ate the bread of angels; *
 he provided for them food enough.
- 26 He caused the east wind to blow in the heavens * and led out the south wind by his might.
- 27 He rained down flesh upon them like dust *
 and winged birds like the sand of the sea.
- 28 He let it fall in the midst of their camp *
 and round about their dwellings.
- 29 So they ate and were well filled, *
 for he gave them what they craved.

The Epistle: Ephesians 4:1-16

I therefore, the prisoner in the Lord, beg you to lead a life worthy of the calling to which you have been called, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, making every effort to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope of your calling, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all and through all and in all. But each of us was given grace according to the measure of Christ's gift. Therefore it is said, "When he ascended on high he made captivity itself a captive; he gave gifts to his people."

(When it says, "He ascended," what does it mean but that he had also descended into the lower parts of the earth? He who descended is the same one who ascended far above all the heavens, so that he might fill all things.) The gifts he gave were that some would be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, until all of us come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to maturity, to the measure of the full stature of Christ. We must no longer be children, tossed to and fro and blown about by every wind of doctrine, by people's trickery, by their craftiness in deceitful scheming. But speaking the truth in love, we must grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ, from whom the whole body, joined and knit together by every ligament with which it is equipped, as each part is working properly, promotes the body's growth in building itself up in love.

The Holy Gospel: John 6:24-35

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to John Response: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The next day, when the people who remained after the feeding of the five thousand saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they themselves got into the boats and went to Capernaum looking for Jesus.

When they found him on the other side of the sea, they said to him, "Rabbi, when did you come here?" Jesus answered them, "Very truly, I tell you, you are looking for me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate your fill of the loaves. Do not work for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures for eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. For it is on him that God the Father has set his seal." Then they said to him, "What must we do to perform the works of God?" Jesus answered them, "This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent." So they said to him, "What sign are you going to give us then, so that we may see it and believe you? What work are you performing? Our ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'" Then Jesus said to them, "Very truly, I tell you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven, but it is my Father who gives you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world." They said to him, "Sir, give us this bread always."

Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty."

COMMUNITY LODGINGS INC. (CLI) UPDATE

Citi Foundation announced that 50 U.S. nonprofits in the latest cohort of its Community Progress Makers (CPM) initiative, are set to receive $1M each in unrestricted grant support. The CPM initiative supports visionary organizations that are working to connect low-income communities to greater economic opportunity. Community Lodgings is part of the current Cohort #4 of this extraordinary investment and collaboration, which will directly impact the lives of hardworking, economically, and educationally marginalized families and children in Alexandria, VA.

“On behalf of our Board of Directors and staff, we are excited to enter this transformational partnership. Citi Foundation’s acknowledgment of our work with the CPM grant reassures us that our commitment to providing safe Transitional Housing, permanent Affordable Housing, and Youth Education Programs in the Arlandria-Chirilagua community is recognized as a sustainable model for the future”, said Lynn Thomas, Executive Director, Community Lodging. Ms. Thomas continued by sharing, “As a direct-service nonprofit, the tangible impact of our work is experienced every day as we provide housing, education, and address food insecurity. Our programs, supportive services, and the measurable resources we share with families strengthen and lift economically disadvantaged families and shift their financial position from economic instability to independence. Ninety-eight percent (98%) of Community Lodgings’ families are working at least one job - and many have two, possibly three - yet they cannot afford basic necessities such as housing and food.”

Founded in 1987, Community Lodgings’ mission is to lift families from homelessness and instability to independence and self-sufficiency through Transitional Housing, Affordable Housing, and Youth Education Programs. Learn more on www.communitylodgings.org, Facebook, Instagram, or X. There is always opportunities for after school tutors, transitional family budget mentors, and other services. If interested in volunteering, contact Doug Henry at ddhenry1@gmail.com.

Fall Retreat “NEW PEOPLE IN OLD STORIES”
Holy Cross Abbey, Berryville, Virginia
November 8-10

In the midst of our overly scheduled lives full of many responsibilities, it is helpful to take time for a spiritual retreat – to be aware of God’s presence, to reflect on the course of our lives, and to ask what is God asking us to do in our daily lives. The Rev. Dr. Frank Wade, our retreat leader, will assist us in this process by focusing his programs on scripture.

For over four thousand years Judaism has been enriched by an approach to scripture known as midrash, a Hebrew word meaning “to seek or inquire.” It involves raising questions the biblical text does not address. The earliest known inquiry was “Why didn’t Adam talk Eve out of eating the apple?” While that might not be a compelling question for our day, the discovery of the original midrash group is relevant. They found that by carefully exploring questions ‘off the grid’ of the biblical text, they were encountering God in new ways. During our time together we will use this ancient practice which relies on imagination as well as scholarship to seek new insights into familiar Bible stories.

The Rev. Dr. Frank Wade is well known to Immanuelites as he serves as one of our priest associates and shares insights through occasional Sunday sermons and forums. His professional work includes a book on marriage, The Art of Being Together, which is in its third printing. Church Publishing Company released his second book, Transforming Scripture, in 2008. His third book, Biblical Fracking: Midrash for the Modern Christian, was published in 2019. He is an adjunct faculty member at Virginia Theological Seminary in Alexandria and has taught Pastoral Theology at both General and Virginia Seminaries. He has served as Interim Dean of Washington National Cathedral and Interim Dean of Students at Virginia Seminary. In addition to the program sessions, the Rev. Dr. Wade will be available for one-on-one conversations.

The retreat will be held at Holy Cross Abbey in the foothills of Blue Mountains by the Shenandoah River on a 1,200-acre farm near Berryville, Virginia, where Cistercian monks have been praying seven times a day since 1950. The monks observe silence at all times to aid reflection, prayer, and listening to God. During our retreat, long periods of time will be devoted to silence. For more information about Holy Cross Abbey, consult their website, <https://www.virginiatrappists.org>. The Abbey is an hour and fifteen-minute drive from Alexandria.

The retreat will begin Friday afternoon, November 8, shortly before the evening meal and will end after the noon meal on Sunday, November 10. There will be ample time for worship, prayer, and exploring the outdoors as weather permits.

The $350.00 registration fee includes all materials, comfortable accommodations, individual rooms each with a bathroom, and all meals. Registration forms are in the bulletin and are available on the Immanuel website https://www.immanuel-on-the-hill.org/uploads/7/4/6/1/74619583/fall_retreat_registration_form_2024.pdf. Please submit your registration form and check to the church office, 3606 Seminary Road, Alexandria, VA. 22304 by Friday, September 27.

Two scholarships given in memory of Charles Willis are available; please contact the rector to request scholarship assistance. If you receive a scholarship, please complete a registration form and indicate that you have a scholarship.

If you have questions about retreat logistics, contact Mary Ann Rehnke, mfrb2695@gmail.com. Participants needing a ride to the Abbey or those wishing to volunteer to provide a ride may contact the retreat carpooling coordinator, Katherine Maas, katherinemaas@gmail.com.

IMMANUEL CHURCH-ON-THE-HILL

Parish Notes

August 4, 2024

IN THE NAME OF CHRIST we welcome you to Immanuel Church-on-the-Hill!

Immanuel is an Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Virginia, and is part of the world-wide Anglican Communion. Immanuel was founded by the Virginia Theological Seminary. We are one parish that worships in two locations: the Zabriskie Chapel (3606 Seminary Road), and Immanuel Chapel (3737 Seminary Road) on the seminary grounds. Both chapels offer a fully-staffed nursery for our infant and toddler parishioners.

Visitors are encouraged to fill out a visitor card — located in the pews or display stands at the entrances of the chapels. Give your card to an usher or place in the collection plate. Thank you.

For the latest information on our online worship service and to view a video of our most recent service, please visit our website (www.icoh.net).

Christmas Families in August Campaign for Learning: SPECIAL COLLECTION & Ingathering

As a parish we were successful beyond expectations in providing backpacks filled with school supplies for 140 children in 64 families referred by the Alexandria Department of Community and Human Services, twice as many as last year. 126 children were "adopted" by parish families, Linda Serabian did the shopping for the 14 remaining children using money from the special collection. Some children needed back-to-school clothing which parishioners added to the backpacks, something new this year.

We give the children the tools for learning, lift their spirits, and send them off to a good start in the new school year.

At both services you are invited to bring the backpacks forward to the altar to be blessed.

The second part of the campaign is to provide funds to three organizations so they can help even more children with school supplies. Last year we gave

$2,000 to the Haiti Micah project for school supplies for the children in the schools they operate.

\$1,000 to Community Lodgings for school supplies for the children in their after school program.

$1,000 to Human Services in Alexandria for school supplies for even more children and for unbureaucratic help to families who struggle with getting children ready for school.

The Haiti Micah Project (HMP) is one of Immanuel's major international outreach ministries; it serves impoverished children in Mirebalais, Haiti. For these children, education offers the only path out of extreme poverty. In Haiti, there is no free public education. Therefore, HMP provides educational stipends for tuition, school supplies, and uniforms to 156 children (134 from the feeding program, 15 in the orphanage, and 7 post secondary students). With the support of churches like Immanuel, these children have the opportunity to become contributing members of their society.

Community Lodgings provides temporary housing and manages a number of affordable housing units. It provides supportive services to the tenants, including assistance with job training and finding a job, computer training, and an after school program. Immanuel was a key member of the group that got Community Lodgings started.

We hope to provide the same support this year. As of July 18, contributions to the special collection totaled almost $1,500, so we still have a way to go. Please give generously this Sunday (or send a check to the office soon after). Please make checks out to “Immanuel Church-on-the-Hill” and mark them “XFAM”.

Let us give the gift of learning, a gift for life.

JUNIOR WARDEN BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS UPDATE: Please take a moment to notice or appreciate all the Buildings and Grounds projects completed in June 2024:
