The Collect of the Day

Set us free, O God, from the bondage of our sins, and give us the liberty of that abundant life which you have made known to us in your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The First Lesson: Isaiah 6:1-13

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. And one called to another and said: "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory."

The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke. And I said: "Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts!" Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: "Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out." Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I; send me!" And he said, "Go and say to this people: 'Keep listening, but do not comprehend; keep looking, but do not understand.' Make the mind of this people dull, and stop their ears, and shut their eyes, so that they may not look with their eyes, and listen with their ears, and comprehend with their minds, and turn and be healed." Then I said, "How long, O Lord?" And he said: "Until cities lie waste without inhabitant, and houses without people, and the land is utterly desolate; until the Lord sends everyone far away, and vast is the emptiness in the midst of the land. Even if a tenth part remain in it, it will be burned again, like a terebinth or an oak whose stump remains standing when it is felled." The holy seed is its stump.

Psalm 138 Confitebor tibi

- 1 I will give thanks to you, O Lord, with my whole heart; *
before the gods I will sing your praise.
- 2 I will bow down toward your holy temple
and praise your Name, *
because of your love and faithfulness;
- 3 For you have glorified your Name *
and your word above all things.
- 4 When I called, you answered me; *
you increased my strength within me.
- 5 All the kings of the earth will praise you, O Lord, *
when they have heard the words of your mouth.
- 6 They will sing of the ways of the Lord, *
that great is the glory of the Lord.
- 7 Though the Lord be high, he cares for the lowly; *
he perceives the haughty from afar.
- 8 Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you keep me safe; *
you stretch forth your hand against the fury of my enemies;
your right hand shall save me.
- 9 The Lord will make good his purpose for me; *
O Lord, your love endures for ever;
do not abandon the works of your hands.

The Epistle: 1 Corinthians 15:1-11

I would remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you--unless you have come to believe in vain.

For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them--though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe.

The Holy Gospel: Luke 5:1-11

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Luke Response: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch." Simon answered, "Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets." When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!" For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people." When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

TODAY

Second Sunday Potluck Fellowship Forum about "Acceptance"

"Acceptance: What's the difference between acceptance and settling?" That's the topic for our Sunday-evening forum this evening. We will gather in the Parish Hall for setup beginning at 6:00 p.m., share a potluck meal at 6:30 p.m., then see clips from the 1991 movie "Prince of Tides" to tease out the difference between acceptance and settling. A viewer said of this movie, "a poignant study of a man coping with the long-term effects of childhood trauma."

BREAKFAST BIBLE STUDY This Saturday, February 16th: Immanuel's monthly Saturday morning Breakfast Bible Study will be on February 16th, the third Saturday. We gather in the Fairchild Room at 7:30 a.m. for breakfast, with Bible study beginning at 8 a.m. — and we promise to have you out by 9 a.m.! Our theme this year is Discernment of Spirits; we will read Romans 12:1-8, using the African Model of Reflection. For more information, please contact Chrissie Crosby (cmcfaddencrosby@gmail.com)

Third Sunday Kids' Activity: Next Sunday, February 17th, after the 9:00 a.m. Eucharist, kids are invited to a "Kids' Activity". This is not intended to replace Family Night with Sunday School later that same day. We are also looking for one parent volunteer to help with the activity. See Martha Shimkin or contact the Rev. John Hogg at jhogg@icoh.net

FAMILY NIGHT AND SUNDAY SCHOOL NEXT SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 17TH, from 5:30-7:30 p.m. in the Zabriskie Parish Hall. All families are invited to join us for what is always a wonderful time of food, fellowship, and fun. This is a quasi-potluck dinner with refreshments. You are welcome, but not required to bring any additional dishes or beverages. In addition, there will be an activity designed just for adults that evening. All are welcome and the nursery will be opened and staffed for our youngest parishioners.

SPONSORS NEEDED FOR HAITIAN CHILDREN: The Haiti Micah Project (HMP) is one of Immanuel's long standing outreach ministries that works with orphaned and at-risk children in Haiti, many of whom are among the poorest of the poor. Over the last decade, HMP has dealt with homeless refugees, a cholera epidemic, civil strife, and continuing economic hardships. Its ministry includes a meal program that provides a hot nutritious lunch to over 400 children each day, an orphanage for 29 children, and educational stipends in a country where education is not free or readily available. Donations of any amount are needed, but parishioners are invited to sponsor a child for one year at a dollar a day ($365). Look for a sign-up board on the Usher's Table in the Zabriskie Narthex. Refer any questions to Jim Snow (jamesbsnow@verizon.net). Thank you.

THREE QUICK QUESTIONS, ONE Unique MINISTRY:

- † Are you over the AGE OF 16?
- † Ever attend the 11:15 a.m. Eucharist in Immanuel Chapel?
- † Have little fear of basic technological gadgets?

Consider joining the AV MINISTRY! We're looking for a few teens and/or adults to serve in our AUDIO VISUAL TECH MINISTRY for our late morning service. To join this unique lay ministry that helps your fellow parishioners hear the speakers and sermons more clearly, please contact the clergy or Aleta directly at apowell@icoh.net and we'll arrange for training. Thank you!

MARK YOUR CALENDAR TO HELP WITH THE ORAL REHYDRATION THERAPY PROJECT: For the 12th year Immanuel is teaming with our neighbors at Temple Beth El (to the West at 3830 Seminary Rd.) to prepare packets of dry ingredients which, when combined with boiled water, can alleviate suffering from diseases like cholera. The BIG EVENT of stuffing the packets, when we need as many volunteers as possible to participate for an hour or more or however long they can stay, happens on Sunday, March 10th, between 9:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. at Temple Beth El. This is a great opportunity to meet new people, see old friends and have wonderful conversations, all while making a difference in the world. Questions? Contact Jim or Nancy Wise at 703-642-8225 (jrwise52@hotmail.com).
