The Collect of the Day

Almighty God, you alone can bring into order the unruly wills and affections of sinners: Grant your people grace to love what you command and desire what you promise; that, among the swift and varied changes of the world, our hearts may surely there be fixed where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The First Lesson: Isaiah 43:16-21

Thus says the Lord, who makes a way in the sea, a path in the mighty waters, who brings out chariot and horse, army and warrior; they lie down, they cannot rise, they are extinguished, quenched like a wick: Do not remember the former things, or consider the things of old. I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert. The wild animals will honor me, the jackals and the ostriches; for I give water in the wilderness, rivers in the desert, to give drink to my chosen people, the people whom I formed for myself so that they might declare my praise.

The Word of the Lord

Response: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 126 In convertendo

- 1 When the Lord restored the fortunes of Zion, *
then were we like those who dream.
- 2 Then was our mouth filled with laughter, *
and our tongue with shouts of joy.
- 3 Then they said among the nations, *
"The Lord has done great things for them."
- 4 The Lord has done great things for us, *
and we are glad indeed.
- 5 Restore our fortunes, O Lord, *
like the watercourses of the Negev.
- 6 Those who sowed with tears *
will reap with songs of joy.
- 7 Those who go out weeping, carrying the seed, *
will come again with joy, shouldering their sheaves.

The Epistle: Philippians 3:4b-14

If anyone else has reason to be confident in the flesh, I have more: circumcised on the eighth day, a member of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew born of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee; as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to righteousness under the law, blameless.

Yet whatever gains I had, these I have come to regard as loss because of Christ. More than that, I regard everything as loss because of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things, and I regard them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but one that comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God based on faith. I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection and the sharing of his sufferings by becoming like him in his death, if somehow I may attain the resurrection from the dead.

Not that I have already obtained this or have already reached the goal; but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Beloved, I do not consider that I have made it my own; but this one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the heavenly call of God in Christ Jesus.

The word of the Lord
Response: Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel: John 12:1-8

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to John Response: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Six days before the Passover Jesus came to Bethany, the home of Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. There they gave a dinner for him. Martha served, and Lazarus was one of those at the table with him. Mary took a pound of costly perfume made of pure nard, anointed Jesus' feet, and wiped them with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume. But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples (the one who was about to betray him), said, "Why was this perfume not sold for three hundred denarii and the money given to the poor?" (He said this not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief; he kept the common purse and used to steal what was put into it.) Jesus said, "Leave her alone. She bought it so that she might keep it for the day of my burial. You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me."

The Gospel of the Lord Response: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Prayers of the People: Creation Care Sunday

Walking with Jesus in the wilderness of Lent, we pray together to the God who created all things. Responding, Hear our prayer.

Leader: Holy God, you created the heavens and the earth. You breathed on humanity the gift of the Holy Spirit. We pray for the Church around the world, remembering especially, Sean, our Presiding Bishop, and Mark, Gail, and James, our bishops, and our clergy. Bless our beloved community of Immanuel, and all churches and places of worship through your creation that in your love we may each become servants, one to the other. Lord, in your mercy,

People: Hear our prayer

God of all, you have entrusted the care of your creation and your children to us. Grant all leaders the wisdom to do the work you have given them to do in care of your creation. We pray for Donald, our President, Glenn our Governor, Alyia our Mayor, members of Congress, and the Supreme Court. Guide them in fairness and justice that we may see the fullness of your kingdom in this world. Lord, in your mercy,

People: Hear our prayer

Leader: God who heals, Open our ears to the cries of the dispirited, the disadvantaged, and the needy. Open our hearts to hear their calls. Have mercy on those who are suffering, especially those who are the victims of our actions against your call to care for all of creation. Source of life, heal and redeem the wounds of your creation, and visit anyone who suffers especially, N. Lord, in your mercy,

People: Hear our prayer

Leader: Saving God, your Son wept at the grave of his friend Lazarus and promised paradise to the thief on the cross: Create in us clean hearts and receive into the arms of your mercy all who have died.

We pray especially for the U.S. Army soldiers who died in the Pabradė, Lithuania recovery mission: Sergeants Jose Duenez, Jr. and Edvin F. Franco, Private First Class Dante D. Taitano, and Staff Sgt. Troy S. Knutson-Collins; and the victims of the Myanmar-Thailand earthquake. For the assurance of life eternal, Lord in your mercy,

People: Hear our prayer

Leader: Gracious God, with longing for a less troubled time and knowing you hold the world, all of creation, including us close to your heart, we pray this day for a near sense of your peace and mercy, and also that we lift up our eyes and name our gratitude for blessings all around us. We pray in boldness and confidence, with the faith of those who have known the wilderness before us and have been in Christ Jesus. Lord, in your mercy,

People: Hear our prayer

Celebrant: Loving God, you are the Creator of heaven and earth, of all that is seen and unseen; you call us to be stewards of all that you have made: Keep us mindful of our promise to care for your creation, and give us the hope and courage we need to preserve and protect your fragile world; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Confession of Sin and Absolution

p. 360

*Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.*

The Peace

Celebrant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And also with you.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

Offertory Anthem: "Pilgrims Hymn"

lyrics by Michael Dennis Browne

Stephen Paulus

THE IMMANUEL CHOIR

Even before we call on Your name
to ask You, O God,
when we seek for the words to glorify You,
You hear our prayer;
Unceasing love, O unceasing love, surpassing all we know.

Glory to the Father,
and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit.

Even with darkness sealing us in,
we breathe Your name,
and through all the days that follow so fast,
we trust in You;
Endless Your grace, O endless Your grace,
beyond all mortal dream.

Both now and forever,
and unto ages and ages,
Amen.

Presentation Hymn 439: "What wondrous love is this" verse 1 from The Hymnal 1982 Wondrous Love

*What wondrous love is this, O my soul, O my soul!
What wondrous love is this, O my soul!
What wondrous love is this that caused the Lord of bliss
to lay aside his crown for my soul, for my soul,
to lay aside his crown for my soul.*

HONORING GOD'S CREATION

Did you know that Immanuel has a Creation Care Ministry website? As people of faith who care deeply about our planet home, the Creation Care Ministry Team seeks to build climate literacy so we can take meaningful actions at home and in our church. We learn about and adopt ways to reduce our climate impact and live more gently on the Earth.

We invite you to explore Immanuel’s Creation Care website and would enjoy hearing your reactions and comments. Did you learn something new? What area of Creation Care interests you the most? Are you unsure about solutions to climate change?

You can access the website by scanning the QR code at right.

Or from the Immanuel Website, you go across the top of the homepage to Serve. Click it and the drop down menu shows the Creation Care Ministry link which you will select.

Our Lenten Series “Grace in the Life of the Believer” Concludes TODAY

Our Lenten Series concludes today, as we look at the ways in which God’s grace shows up in our own parish life. Since ancient times, Christians have celebrated the fellowship of the Church as a laboratory where God’s grace is apparent and present. That is certainly true at Immanuel, and we will be looking at some of the ways that grace shows up in our life together. Come join us!

Invitation to CONFESSION: Anglicans approach private confession in a classic middle way framed by the old adage, “All may; none must; some should.” Lent is a particularly appropriate time to consider private confession as part of one’s Lenten discipline and examination of life. If you would like to schedule an appointment for Confession, please contact any of the clergy. You can read over the rite for private confession in The Book of Common Prayer, beginning on page 447.

NOTE TO PARENTS AND OUR COMMUNITY ABOUT SACRED SPACES: We are blessed at Immanuel with the boundless energy and passion of increasing numbers of children, for which we give deep thanks. We are also glad that children feel comfortable at Immanuel, that they feel at home and safe in this community. We do, however, need to look out for their safety and protection, and for the protection of those sacred spaces. In particular, parents are asked to keep an eye out for their children after the 10:30 Eucharist, as some have been seen climbing on the walls of the Chapel Garden and ruins of the old chapel. This is both dangerous for them and not respectful towards those whose ashes are interred there. Let’s all work together to make sure our children can be children while also protecting them and the sacred spaces in our care.

SUPPORT REFUGEES IN OUR COMMUNITY!

The Christ Church Refugee Ministry has been supported for many years by this congregation by the outreach committee and the many parishioners who donate their time to help resettle these wonderful families.

Spring2ACTION Early Giving began March 26 and runs through April 9! Our goal is to raise $50,000. Currently the Christ Church Refugee Ministry has the highest number of families seeking help at one time in the history of the ministry.

These are Afghans who worked for the American government and are here with Special Immigration Visa (SIV) status. They arrived between October 2024 and January 2025. They are not self-sufficient due to inadequate resettlement or the ending of resettlement benefits and services.

Our Refugee Ministry has been in existence since 2016, and we have an amazing track record of helping over 100 families reach independence and make the United States their home. We want to be able to do this for the families coming to us now and frankly if we do not, we are not sure what will happen to them.

Your generous donation will directly support the Refugee Ministry at Historic Christ Church with:

- Rental assistance
- Food and toiletries
- Medical and dental care
- Emergency expenses
- Family activities and community gatherings
- Case management services

These funds will ensure that refugee families receive the help and support they need to thrive in our community. Every dollar you give will make a direct impact, providing essential aid and fostering a welcoming environment for those in need.
