Grant to us, Lord, we pray, the spirit to think and do always those things that are right, that we, who cannot exist without you, may by you be enabled to live according to your will; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen

The First Lesson: 1 Kings 19:4-8

Elijah went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a solitary broom tree. He asked that he might die: “It is enough; now, O Lord, take away my life, for I am no better than my ancestors.” Then he lay down under the broom tree and fell asleep. Suddenly an angel touched him and said to him, “Get up and eat.” He looked, and there at his head was a cake baked on hot stones, and a jar of water. He ate and drank, and lay down again. The angel of the Lord came a second time, touched him, and said, “Get up and eat, otherwise the journey will be too much for you.” He got up, and ate and drank; then he went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Horeb the mount of God.

The Word of the Lord

Response: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 34:1-8 Benedicam Dominum

- 1 I will bless the Lord at all times; *
his praise shall ever be in my mouth.
- 2 I will glory in the Lord; *
let the humble hear and rejoice.
- 3 Proclaim with me the greatness of the Lord; *
let us exalt his Name together.
- 4 I sought the Lord, and he answered me *
and delivered me out of all my terror.
- 5 Look upon him and be radiant, *
and let not your faces be ashamed.
- 6 I called in my affliction and the Lord heard me *
and saved me from all my troubles.
- 7 The angel of the Lord encompasses those who fear him, *
and he will deliver them.
- 8 Taste and see that the Lord is good; *
happy are they who trust in him!

The Epistle: Ephesians 4:25-5:2

Putting away falsehood, let all of us speak the truth to our neighbors, for we are members of one another. Be angry but do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your anger, and do not make room for the devil. Thieves must give up stealing; rather let them labor and work honestly with their own hands, so as to have something to share with the needy. Let no evil talk come out of your mouths, but only what is useful for building up, as there is need, so that your words may give grace to those who hear. And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with which you were marked with a seal for the day of redemption. Put away from you all bitterness and wrath and anger and wrangling and slander, together with all malice, and be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ has forgiven you. Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children, and live in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.

The Holy Gospel: John 6:35, 41-51

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to John Response: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty."

Then the Jews began to complain about him because he said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven." They were saying, "Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can he now say, 'I have come down from heaven'?" Jesus answered them, "Do not complain among yourselves. No one can come to me unless drawn by the Father who sent me; and I will raise that person up on the last day. It is written in the prophets, ‘And they shall all be taught by God.’ Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me. Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God; he has seen the Father. Very truly, I tell you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh.”

Come One, Come All to HOMECOMING Sunday September 8th!

Everyone is encouraged to invite family, friends, and neighbors to our Homecoming Sunday, September 8th. Our Immanuel Choir will return at the 10:30a.m. Eucharist, followed by a festive potluck picnic in the Zabriskie Parish Hall and Garden. More details to come, so please mark your calendars; however, you can volunteer for food donations now.

Traditionally for our potluck, we assign dishes to bring based on last names. This year, we've chosen to create a SignUp Genius so that parishioners can choose what they'd like to donate. Simply find this bulletin on our website under "Worship/Worship Service Bulletins", then click the blue text "Homecoming Potluck Picnic" or scan the QR code at left to choose a dish to bring. You could make a cash donation instead (highlighted in yellow in the description on our SignUp Genius form) and the church will use the money to shop wholesale for food categories without donors, and additional picnic necessities.

Join the Immanuel Tables at The First-Ever REGIONAL FUNDRAISING DINNER OF THE VIRGINIA INTERFAITH CENTER FOR PUBLIC POLICY (VICPP)
Sunday, September 22nd at 5:00 p.m. at VTS

Immanuel has long been active in VICPP, which works to see that our state does business in ways that accord with the teachings of the major religions. There will be awards, an inspiring speaker, possibly from Alfred Street Baptist Church, and the All Dulles Area Muslim Society Youth Choir will perform a few selections. Immanuel is sponsoring two tables of 10, and parishioners (and their guests) can attend for a modest $25 contribution to VICPP. It will be a great opportunity to support an effective group and to meet fellow supporters from other local places of worship. Immanuel's seats are first-come, first-serve — let Jamie Conrad know if you'd like one or more, or if you have questions at (jwc58@comcast.net). Hope to see you there!

COMMUNITY LODGINGS INC. (CLI) UPDATE

Citi Foundation announced that 50 U.S. nonprofits in the latest cohort of its Community Progress Makers (CPM) initiative, are set to receive $1M each in unrestricted grant support. The CPM initiative supports visionary organizations that are working to connect low-income communities to greater economic opportunity. Community Lodgings is part of the current Cohort #4 of this extraordinary investment and collaboration, which will directly impact the lives of hardworking, economically, and educationally marginalized families and children in Alexandria, VA.

“On behalf of our Board of Directors and staff, we are excited to enter this transformational partnership. Citi Foundation’s acknowledgment of our work with the CPM grant reassures us that our commitment to providing safe Transitional Housing, permanent Affordable Housing, and Youth Education Programs in the Arlandria-Chirilagua community is recognized as a sustainable model for the future”, said Lynn Thomas, Executive Director, Community Lodging. Ms. Thomas continued by sharing, “As a direct-service nonprofit, the tangible impact of our work is experienced every day as we provide housing, education, and address food insecurity. Our programs, supportive services, and the measurable resources we share with families strengthen and lift economically disadvantaged families and shift their financial position from economic instability to independence. Ninety-eight percent (98%) of Community Lodgings’ families are working at least one job - and many have two, possibly three - yet they cannot afford basic necessities such as housing and food.”

Founded in 1987, Community Lodgings’ mission is to lift families from homelessness and instability to independence and self-sufficiency through Transitional Housing, Affordable Housing, and Youth Education Programs. Learn more on www.communitylodgings.org, Facebook, Instagram, or X. There is always opportunities for after school tutors, transitional family budget mentors, and other services. If interested in volunteering, contact Doug Henry at ddhenry1@gmail.com.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES: GODLY PLAY

This fall we are expanding Godly Play to serve kids aged 8-11 as well as the youngsters aged 4-7. To serve more children we will need more helpers! Would you like to join our dedicated crew? We need volunteers ages 14 and up (including adults). In Godly Play we help children to experience God through the stories that are foundational to our faith, and to think about the nature of God in their lives.

Storytellers guide the children through the week's story and facilitate their exploration of the story through "I wonder" questions. Immanuel is hosting an in-person Storyteller training on September 7th, from 8am-5:30pm. If you're interested in participating in the training, email Rev. Sarah by August 30th to reserve a spot. (Please note that Storytellers must be 18 or older.)

Greeters are an important part of the Godly Play experience. They help to welcome the children, prepare them to come into the Godly Play space and support the Storyteller and the circle of children throughout the session. If you're interested in serving in this role, please contact Rev. Sarah for more information. (Please note that Greeters must be at least 14 years old).

Those who have volunteered for this program for a while, find it can spark wondering questions for us, and enrich our own faith journeys. If you would like to learn more, please contact the Rev. Sarah Spurlock Biggs (sspurlockbiggs@icoh.net) and Sarah Glassco (glasscos@gmail.com)

Fall Retreat “NEW PEOPLE IN OLD STORIES”
Holy Cross Abbey, Berryville, Virginia
November 8-10

In the midst of our overly scheduled lives full of many responsibilities, it is helpful to take time for a spiritual retreat – to be aware of God’s presence, to reflect on the course of our lives, and to ask what is God asking us to do in our daily lives. The Rev. Dr. Frank Wade, our retreat leader, will assist us in this process by focusing his programs on scripture.

For over four thousand years Judaism has been enriched by an approach to scripture known as midrash, a Hebrew word meaning “to seek or inquire.” It involves raising questions the biblical text does not address. The earliest known inquiry was “Why didn’t Adam talk Eve out of eating the apple?” While that might not be a compelling question for our day, the discovery of the original midrash group is relevant. They found that by carefully exploring questions ‘off the grid’ of the biblical text, they were encountering God in new ways. During our time together we will use this ancient practice which relies on imagination as well as scholarship to seek new insights into familiar Bible stories.

The Rev. Dr. Frank Wade is well known to Immanuelites as he serves as one of our priest associates and shares insights through occasional Sunday sermons and forums. His professional work includes a book on marriage, The Art of Being Together, which is in its third printing. Church Publishing Company released his second book, Transforming Scripture, in 2008. His third book, Biblical Fracking: Midrash for the Modern Christian, was published in 2019. He is an adjunct faculty member at Virginia Theological Seminary in Alexandria and has taught Pastoral Theology at both General and Virginia Seminaries. He has served as Interim Dean of Washington National Cathedral and Interim Dean of Students at Virginia Seminary. In addition to the program sessions, the Rev. Dr. Wade will be available for one-on-one conversations.

The retreat will be held at Holy Cross Abbey in the foothills of Blue Mountains by the Shenandoah River on a 1,200-acre farm near Berryville, Virginia, where Cistercian monks have been praying seven times a day since 1950. The monks observe silence at all times to aid reflection, prayer, and listening to God. During our retreat, long periods of time will be devoted to silence. For more information about Holy Cross Abbey, consult their website, <https://www.virginiatrappists.org>. The Abbey is an hour and fifteen-minute drive from Alexandria.

The retreat will begin Friday afternoon, November 8, shortly before the evening meal and will end after the noon meal on Sunday, November 10. There will be ample time for worship, prayer, and exploring the outdoors as weather permits.

The $350.00 registration fee includes all materials, comfortable accommodations, individual rooms each with a bathroom, and all meals. Registration forms are in the bulletin and are available on the Immanuel website https://www.immanuel-on-the-hill.org/uploads/7/4/6/1/74619583/fall_retreat_registration_form_2024.pdf. Please submit your registration form and check to the church office, 3606 Seminary Road, Alexandria, VA. 22304 by Friday, September 27.

Two scholarships given in memory of Charles Willis are available; please contact the rector to request scholarship assistance. If you receive a scholarship, please complete a registration form and indicate that you have a scholarship.

If you have questions about retreat logistics, contact Mary Ann Rehnke, mfrb2695@gmail.com. Participants needing a ride to the Abbey or those wishing to volunteer to provide a ride may contact the retreat carpooling coordinator, Katherine Maas, katherinemaas@gmail.com.
