The First Lesson: Proverbs 8:1-4, 22-31

Does not wisdom call, and does not understanding raise her voice? On the heights, beside the way, at the crossroads she takes her stand; beside the gates in front of the town, at the entrance of the portals she cries out: "To you, O people, I call, and my cry is to all that live. The Lord created me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts of long ago. Ages ago I was set up, at the first, before the beginning of the earth. When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water. Before the mountains had been shaped, before the hills, I was brought forth -- when he had not yet made earth and fields, or the world's first bits of soil. When he established the heavens, I was there, when he drew a circle on the face of the deep, when he made firm the skies above, when he established the fountains of the deep, when he assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters might not transgress his command, when he marked out the foundations of the earth, then I was beside him, like a master worker; and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always, rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the human race."

The Word of the Lord

Response: Thanks be to God.

Canticle 13: A Song of Praise Benedictus es, Domine

Song of the Three Young Men, 29-34

Glory to you, Lord God of our fathers; *
you are worthy of praise; glory to you.
Glory to you for the radiance of your holy Name; *
we will praise you and highly exalt you for ever.
Glory to you in the splendor of your temple; *
on the throne of your majesty, glory to you.
Glory to you, seated between the Cherubim; *
we will praise you and highly exalt you for ever.
Glory to you, beholding the depths; *
in the high vault of heaven, glory to you.
Glory to you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit; *
we will praise you and highly exalt you for ever.

The Epistle: Romans 5:1-5

Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

Response: Thanks be to God

The Holy Gospel: John 16:12-15

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to John People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said to the disciples, "I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you."

The Gospel of the Lord
People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,

The Christmas Families Campaign for Learning NEEDS YOUR HELP IN TROUBLED TIMES

When funds for education are cut and more people are marginalized, many more of God's beloved children desperately need our help.

Help children with school supplies - critical tools for learning!

It is hard to learn to write if you don't have a pencil. God means for every child to have a pencil so they can learn and develop to their full potential, and He asks for our help to get there. This is a larger issue of social justice. Education is supposed to be the great equalizer in society, but as of now it is not; rather than getting better, this is getting worse. Rich children have pencils, poor children do not. There are many factors that make educational opportunities unequal, so, rather than giving everyone an equal chance, education actually cements inequality in society.

To make real strides towards more equality requires systemic change, including high-quality preschool for all children and improving support for refugee / immigrant children in school. Immanuel has contributed to this goal, but larger impact requires more government action. As Christians in the world we can work on influencing government at all levels.

There are also small things we can do. In Christmas Families in August we work through the Department of Community and Human Services (DCHS) and the Refugee Ministry to provide school supplies to children in need.

There are two ways you can help:

- (1) Sign up to provide a backpack filled with school supplies for the children in one family
Some children also need back-to-school clothing. We expect 100 families with 200 children referred by DCHS and the Refugee Ministry administered by Christ Church for the Alexandria Episcopal churches. Sign up after each service through Sunday, August 3 or in the Zabriskie Narthex during the week. We will give you a yellow instruction sheet with the children's names and all the information you need. Or email Linda Serabian (serabian@somaarchitects.com) to arrange for selecting a family.

Bring the backpacks to church (or the office) on or before Sunday, August 10 to be blessed at the altar. Unassigned school supplies, especially backpacks (new or lightly used) are also welcome.

- (2) Donate money through the special collections held on Sunday, August 10.
Please make checks out to Immanuel and mark them "XFAM" on the memo line. The money will go to the following:

- The Haiti Micah Project (50%, last year $2,000)
- Community Lodgings (25%, last year $1,000)
- Buying school supplies for families without a sponsor (last year $1,200, need more this year).

The Haiti Micah Project (HMP) is one of Immanuel's major international outreach ministries, one of the two charities supported by the Immanuel Easter Appeal. For the 150 children it serves, education offers the only path out of extreme poverty. In Haiti, there is no free public education. The additional funding is specifically earmarked for school supplies.

To look ahead, many children need tutoring and a personal touch to cope with a sometimes hostile environment. Let us give the tools for learning that empower and lift the spirit.

Let us send children off to a good start in the new school year, and sustain them through the year.

Discussion and Light Supper with The Rev. Jameel Maher Khader and Family
Visiting from The Episcopal Diocese of Jerusalem
Sunday, June 29th @ 4:00 p.m., Zabriskie Parish Hall

Join us for an informal discussion with Father Jameel, Rector of St. Philip’s Anglican Episcopal Church, of the Episcopal Diocese of Jerusalem on Sunday, June 29 at 4:00 p.m. in the Parish Hall at Zabriski. Immanuel has supported the Anglican Diocese of Jerusalem and its ministries for a number of years, but we seldom have a chance for interaction with its clergy. The Rev. Jameel Maher Khader (joined by his wife and two year old daughter) will be with us to talk about his church, St. Philip’s, in Nablus, its ecumenical youth group and other ministries, and the larger context of conflict and faith for Palestinian Christians. This is part of a larger visit where several St. Phillips youth group members, together with Father Jameel, are visiting churches in the Washington DC area through the first week in July.

Do join us and – if you can – stay for an early light supper after the presentation. We will also be joined by a few parishioners from nearby (Region 4) Episcopal churches and possibly people from the Seminary.

For further information, please contact David Atwood atwooddavid@gmail.com
