The Collect of the Day

The Celebrant says to the people

The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

O Lord, make us have perpetual love and reverence for your holy Name, for you never fail to help and govern those whom you have set upon the sure foundation of your loving--kindness; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The First Lesson: 1 Kings 19:1-4, 8-15a

Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and how he had killed all the prophets with the sword. Then Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, "So may the gods do to me, and more also, if I do not make your life like the life of one of them by this time tomorrow." Then he was afraid; he got up and fled for his life, and came to Beer-sheba, which belongs to Judah; he left his servant there.

But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a solitary broom tree. He asked that he might die: "It is enough; now, O Lord, take away my life, for I am no better than my ancestors." He got up, and ate and drank; then he went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Horeb the mount of God. At that place he came to a cave, and spent the night there.

Then the word of the Lord came to him, saying, "What are you doing here, Elijah?" He answered, "I have been very zealous for the Lord, the God of hosts; for the Israelites have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I alone am left, and they are seeking my life, to take it away."

He said, "Go out and stand on the mountain before the Lord, for the Lord is about to pass by." Now there was a great wind, so strong that it was splitting mountains and breaking rocks in pieces before the Lord, but the Lord was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the Lord was not in the earthquake; and after the earthquake a fire, but the Lord was not in the fire; and after the fire a sound of sheer silence. When Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood at the entrance of the cave. Then there came a voice to him that said, "What are you doing here, Elijah?" He answered, "I have been very zealous for the Lord, the God of hosts; for the Israelites have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I alone am left, and they are seeking my life, to take it away." Then the Lord said to him, "Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus."

Psalm 42 Quemadmodum

- 1 As the deer longs for the water-brooks, *
so longs my soul for you, O God.
- 2 My soul is athirst for God, athirst for the living God; *
when shall I come to appear before the presence of God?
- 3 My tears have been my food day and night, *
while all day long they say to me,
"Where now is your God?"
- 4 I pour out my soul when I think on these things: *
how I went with the multitude and led them into the house of God,
- 5 With the voice of praise and thanksgiving, *
among those who keep holy-day.
- 6 Why are you so full of heaviness, O my soul? *
and why are you so disquieted within me?
- 7 Put your trust in God; *
for I will yet give thanks to him,
who is the help of my countenance, and my God.
- 8 My soul is heavy within me; *
therefore I will remember you from the land of Jordan,
and from the peak of Mizar among the heights of Hermon.
- 9 One deep calls to another in the noise of your cataracts; *
all your rapids and floods have gone over me.

- 10 The Lord grants his loving-kindness in the daytime; *
in the night season his song is with me,
a prayer to the God of my life.
- 11 I will say to the God of my strength,
"Why have you forgotten me? *
and why do I go so heavily while the enemy oppresses me?"
- 12 While my bones are being broken, *
my enemies mock me to my face;
- 13 All day long they mock me *
and say to me, "Where now is your God?"
- 14 Why are you so full of heaviness, O my soul? *
and why are you so disquieted within me?
- 15 Put your trust in God; *
for I will yet give thanks to him,
who is the help of my countenance, and my God.

The Epistle: Galatians 3:23-29

Now before faith came, we were imprisoned and guarded under the law until faith would be revealed. Therefore the law was our disciplinarian until Christ came, so that we might be justified by faith. But now that faith has come, we are no longer subject to a disciplinarian, for in Christ Jesus you are all children of God through faith. As many of you as were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. There is no longer Jew or Greek, there is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male and female; for all of you are one in Christ Jesus. And if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to the promise.

The Holy Gospel: Luke 8:26-39

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Luke People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus and his disciples arrived at the country of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee. As he stepped out on land, a man of the city who had demons met him. For a long time he had worn no clothes, and he did not live in a house but in the tombs. When he saw Jesus, he fell down before him and shouted at the top of his voice, "What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me" -- for Jesus had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. (For many times it had seized him; he was kept under guard and bound with chains and shackles, but he would break the bonds and be driven by the demon into the wilds.) Jesus then asked him, "What is your name?" He said, "Legion"; for many demons had entered him. They begged him not to order them to go back into the abyss.

Now there on the hillside a large herd of swine was feeding; and the demons begged Jesus to let them enter these. So he gave them permission. Then the demons came out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and was drowned.

When the swineherds saw what had happened, they ran off and told it in the city and in the country. Then people came out to see what had happened, and when they came to Jesus, they found the man from whom the demons had gone sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind. And they were afraid. Those who had seen it told them how the one who had been possessed by demons had been healed. Then all the people of the surrounding country of the Gerasenes asked Jesus to leave them; for they were seized with great fear. So he got into the boat and returned. The man from whom the demons had gone begged that he might be with him; but Jesus sent him away, saying, "Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you." So he went away, proclaiming throughout the city how much Jesus had done for him.

Discussion and Light Supper with The Rev. Jameel Maher Khader and Family

Visiting from The Episcopal Diocese of Jerusalem

Sunday, June 29th @ 4:00 p.m., Zabriskie Parish Hall

Join us for an informal discussion with Father Jameel, Rector of St. Philip's Anglican Episcopal Church, of the Episcopal Diocese of Jerusalem on Sunday, June 29 at 4:00 p.m. in the Parish Hall at Zabriski. Immanuel has supported the Anglican Diocese of Jerusalem and its ministries for a number of years, but we seldom have a chance for interaction with its clergy. The Rev. Jameel Maher Khader (joined by his wife and two year old daughter) will be with us to talk about his church, St. Philip's, in Nablus, its ecumenical youth group and other ministries, and the larger context of conflict and faith for Palestinian Christians. This is part of a larger visit where several St. Phillips youth group members, together with Father Jameel, are visiting churches in the Washington DC area through the first week in July.

Do join us and – if you can – stay for an early light supper after the presentation. We will also be joined by a few parishioners from nearby (Region 4) Episcopal churches and possibly people from the Seminary.

For further information, please contact David Atwood atwooddavid@gmail.com

JUNE: FOURTH TUESDAY BROWN BAG LUNCH. Please join us in the Parish Hall on Tuesday June 24 at 12:15pm to hear a presentation by our own Dr. Dodd Simms. Last year's presentation by Dodd was a smash, and he is returning to help us better understand how our memory changes as we age. As Jesus said so frequently, "Be not afraid!" Bring your own sandwich or salad and we will provide dessert and drinks. There is no reservation requirement and no cost to this event.

JULY

THIRD WEDNESDAY LUNCH AT GOODWIN HOUSE-ALEXANDRIA at noon on July 16 (Same RSVP details as above).

They are friendly and gentle and you (whether you're 4 years old or 84) can pet them, feed them, take them for a walk on a leash and get your picture taken with them. Don't miss up close and personal time with these sweeties! They will arrive at Zabriskie at 10:00am and will stay for two hours. Afterwards, we will have pizza in the Parish Hall. There is no reservation requirement and no cost to this event. Everyone is welcome!

Bring your own sandwich or salad and we will provide dessert and drinks. There is no reservation requirement and no cost to this event and, as always, friends, neighbors, and family members are welcome.

CHRISTMAS FAMILIES IN AUGUST

Campaign for Learning and Quality Education for All

Update Sunday June 22. Moving forward

Here are the numbers as of Wednesday, June 18, 2025, the largest need ever.

	Families	Parents	Children	All people
On our list from DCHS +	86	86	153	239
Signed up for by June 18	30	30	57	87
Remaining	56	56	96	152

So we are off to a good start but we still have a way to go.

You can sign up to provide a backpack filled with school supplies for the children in one family to give them the tools for learning and lift their spirits and send them off to a good start in the new school year. Sign up continues before or after each service through Sunday, August 4 or in the Zabriskie Narthex during the week. Take a yellow instruction sheet with names and all the information you need.

There are some large families; perhaps two parish families can team up to provide for them.

You can also email Linda Serabian <serabian@somaarchitects.com> to arrange for selecting a family.

The special collection goes

- to the Haiti MICAH project and Community Lodgings for school supplies for the children they serve
- for buying backpacks and supplies for children not "adopted".

You can contribute any time between now and Sunday, August 10 (checks to Immanuel marked "XFAM" on the memo line). Early contributions are especially helpful; sending the money early July allows the organizations to plan for the new school year.

If we see an overwhelming response, we will approach organizations working with refugees/immigrants for referrals of families who need help getting their children ready for meeting their special challenges in school. Ingathering of backpacks to be blessed at the altar and second special collection on Sunday, August 10.

Let us give the gift of learning, a gift for life.
