GRACE AND GRATITUDE:

There is a long-standing cadre of wonderful women (and some men) who come in twice a month, faithfully, to prepare the Almond Tree for mailing. Your parish administrator certainly couldn’t do without their help, their enthusiasm, and their friendship. Most especially now, though, I want to say thank you and farewell to the wonderful lady who has kept everyone organized, kept us on track, and managed even the odd “unscheduled” mailing. Nancy Gilbert is retiring as the true shepherd of this group, and I want to say a heartfelt thank you to her, as she moves into other activities. God speed, Nancy, you are a wonderful woman and have been a great friend.

Jennifer

A Letter from the Diocese of Virginia

April 5, 2012

Dear Friends,

Late last week, the seven CANA congregations involved in the legal dispute with the Diocese of Virginia filed notices of appeal, seeking to overturn the Fairfax Circuit Court's final order that all real and personal Episcopal property be returned to the Diocese of Virginia by April 30. In addition, four of those congregations (Church of the Apostles Anglican, Fairfax; the Falls Church Anglican, Falls Church; St. Paul's Church Anglican, Haymarket; and Truro Church Anglican, Fairfax) have sought stays to suspend the execution of the court's order until their appeals are decided. If the stays are granted, then the CANA congregations would remain in place. The Falls Church Episcopal would be able to use the historic church with the permission of the rector of the Falls Church Anglican. The court will hear this motion on Friday, April 20.

What does this mean for our continuing congregations and for our diocese? It means that the way forward is not yet entirely clear. We respect the CANA congregations' right to appeal, but believe that it's time that these properties were returned to the mission and ministry of the Episcopal Church and that the litigation should end. We are in daily contact with the leadership of those congregations, trying to negotiate a fair and gracious resolution. In fact, since these filings, the Diocese and the Church of the Epiphany Anglican, Herndon have entered a final settlement and members of St. Stephen's Episcopal, Heathsville returned to their church home on Palm Sunday. The Falls Church Episcopal will celebrate this Easter in the historic church, and we continue to work closely with the Falls Church Anglican to ensure a smooth transition of the Falls Church Day School.

As we walk through Holy Week, we walk in the footsteps of Christ. It is a walk of pain, of loss and of heartbreaking uncertainty. It is also a walk of sure and certain hope toward the empty tomb, discovered at first light on the day that changed everything. We must remember that our brothers and sisters in the CANA congregations walk with us, and we with them, toward that empty tomb. We walk faithfully, knowing that Easter will come.

Faithfully,

Henry D.W. Burt
Secretary of the Diocese

ALTAR FLOWERS make wonderful offerings of thanks for special anniversaries and memorial events – as gifts that illuminate God's creation and bless our worship. You may sign up to give flowers by calling Jennifer Addington, the parish Administrator, at 703-370-6555. There have been many weeks when no one has taken advantage of this opportunity--a drain on the church budget as well. Look at your calendars and pick a special day to give flowers!

FREE MOVIE SCREENING: LOVE FREE OR DIE. On April 22 at 6:15 pm, Christ Church will offer a free screening of this recent Sundance-award winning documentary. Love Free or Die profiles Bishop Gene Robinson, the first openly gay bishop in the history of Christianity. A casual supper will be offered. All are welcome but RSVPs are required. To RSVP or for any questions, contact Melissa Capers, mcapers@rocketmail.com (703-549-2171).

Thank You!

FROM OUR HANDS TO HAITI: Oral re-hydration packets, made by Alexandria volunteers, got routed to Haiti to combat the 2010 cholera outbreak that followed the earthquake. On April 22, we hope to make 100,000 more!

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR ORAL RE-HYDRATION PROJECT!

SUNDAY APRIL 22: ALL HANDS ON DECK! We need EVERYONE to assemble the packets, any time between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m.

WHERE: Temple Beth El, up the street from ICOH, at 3830 Seminary Road.

WHY: People's lives depend on it!

Once again, ICOH parishioners will participate in one of our largest Outreach effort of the year, when we join our neighbors at Beth El Temple to assemble 100,000 packets of dry ingredients (sugars and salts) that, when combined with boiled water, can save lives.

ICOH has contributed special plastic zipper bags using Outreach funds — our “Pumpkin dollars” at work in the world. These oral rehydration packets are then distributed by the United Nations and other international relief agencies to the scenes of natural or man-made disasters — caused by war, famine, earthquake, hurricanes, flooding, drought.

This Outreach project reduces infant mortality, involves international outreach and is both ecumenical and fun. Bring friends and family members. You don't have to sign up, just show up ready to work! You'll receive simple instructions from the organizers, and snacks are provided. Stay as long as you like, but let's plan on being there and setting a new record!
