

his throne was fiery flames,
and its wheels were burning fire.
A stream of fire issued
and flowed out from his presence.
A thousand thousands served him,
and ten thousand times ten thousand stood attending him.
The court sat in judgment,
and the books were opened.

As I watched in the night visions,

I saw one like a human being coming with the clouds of heaven.
And he came to the Ancient One
and was presented before him.
To him was given dominion
and glory and kingship,
that all peoples, nations, and languages
should serve him.
His dominion is an everlasting dominion
that shall not pass away,
and his kingship is one
that shall never be destroyed.

Psalm 93 Dominus, Regnavit

- 1 The LORD is King;
he has put on splendid apparel; *
the LORD has put on his apparel
and girded himself with strength.
- 2 He has made the whole world so sure *
that it cannot be moved;
- 3 Ever since the world began, your throne has been established; *
you are from everlasting.
- 4 The waters have lifted up, O LORD,
the waters have lifted up their voice; *
the waters have lifted up their pounding waves.
- 5 Mightier than the sound of many waters,
mightier than the breakers of the sea, *
mightier is the LORD who dwells on high.
- 6 Your testimonies are very sure, *
and holiness adorns your house, O LORD,
for ever and for evermore.

The Epistle: Revelation 1:4b-8

Grace to you and peace from him who is and who was and who is to come, and from the seven spirits who are before his throne, and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth.

To him who loves us and freed us from our sins by his blood, and made us to be a kingdom, priests serving his God and Father, to him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

Look! He is coming with the clouds;
every eye will see him,
even those who pierced him;
and on his account all the tribes of the earth will wail.

So it is to be. Amen.

“I am the Alpha and the Omega,” says the Lord God, who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty.

The Holy Gospel: John 18:33-37

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to John

Response: Glory be to thee, O Lord

Pilate entered the headquarters again, summoned Jesus, and asked him, “Are you the King of the Jews?” Jesus answered, “Do you ask this on your own, or did others tell you about me?” Pilate replied, “I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests have handed you over to me. What have you done?” Jesus answered, “My kingdom is not from this world. If my kingdom were from this world, my followers would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. But as it is, my kingdom is not from here.” Pilate asked him, “So you are a king?” Jesus answered, “You say that I am a king. For this I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice.”

Praying with Scripture: An Opportunity for Reflection After Eucharist

Silent prayer or mediation draws us closer to God. When we focus on one of the Sunday scripture passages, we may discover more of God’s message to us. We will explore praying with scripture in the Octagon Room off the small Oratory Chapel following the 10:30 a.m. service. Pick up a treat at coffee hour, bring your bulletin, and join us to meditate on one of the scripture passages for the day. Our prayer time will conclude by 12:30 p.m.

LOOKING AHEAD TO ADVENT AT IMMANUEL “Advent prayer as waiting and longing”

There will be three opportunities for quiet devotion on Tuesday evenings in Advent: December 3, 10, and 17 from 5:15-6:00 p.m. in the Oratory Chapel at the Seminary, with the Rev. Dr. Sarah Coakley.

These sessions will be a continuation of the quiet prayer group that formed last Lent, but newcomers are particularly welcomed, and a few minutes of simple advice about the practice of silence will be given at the start. The third session will consist of a short corporate silence followed by a simple, contemplative eucharist. If you would like to deepen your prayer, with the support of others, during this very busy time of year, do come along and be surprised by the profundity of this shared act of attention and adoration.

Dr. Coakley will also give a Forum Hour on Sunday Dec 8 (at 11:45 a.m. in the VTS Welcome Center next to Immanuel Chapel) with a connected presentation and open discussion on: “Re-thinking Advent as a Spiritual Project: Repentance, Longing and Hope.”

CONFIRMATION CLASS FORMING:

Immanuel is scheduled for a Bishop's visitation and Confirmation on Sunday, March 16, 2025. We will be forming a Youth Confirmation Class and a separate track for adults who want to be Confirmed or Received. Please reach out to any of the clergy if you are interested.

CHRISTMAS FAMILIES 2024 – Signing Up for a Family

And the king will answer them, 'Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me.' (Matthew 25:40)

Today is the first Sunday you can sign up to buy gifts for a family, or part of one, to bring the good news of Christ's coming and God's love in a very tangible form – a toy to grow with, clothing to keep warm in and that children are proud to wear, increasing their self-esteem – to another family, transforming a bleak Christmas into the light of Christ present. Sign-up is before or after each service on Sundays Nov. 24, Dec. 1, and Dec. 8, or in the Zabriskie Narthex during the week. You can also email or call Linda Serabian (see below) with a description of the kind of family you would like (number, age, and gender of children) and she will select a family for you and send you the information. We have so far 72 families, 181 children and 89 parents, 270 people in all, with more to come.

Ingathering of the gifts and blessing at the altar will be on Dec. 15, which is also the Sunday of the special collection. Or you can bring the gifts to the parish office before Dec. 15. Dec. 15 is also the Sunday of the great forum hour party to wrap gifts for children and parents not "adopted".

In addition, used computers will find eager fingers and minds. Also very welcome are used bicycles in any shape, good used toys and children's books, calendars you receive in the mail, and gently used clothing and blankets (for children and adults), especially warm winter coats and clothes to wear to a new-found job. (Please label packages of clothing as to kind and size.). They will be arranged in "Boutique" at Social and Human Services for social workers to pick up for client families.

For the bicycle program we partner with Vélocity Bicycle Cooperative (<https://velocitycoop.org/donate-stuff/>), 2111 Mt Vernon Avenue, Tuesday. – Sat. 10 am – 4 pm. They provide beautifully refurbished bikes for many children on our list. You can take used bicycles directly to them or bring them to the church. It would be great if some Immanuelites, including young people, would volunteer for Vélocity. They will teach you bicycle repair.

Connie Kurz and Laura Snow buy children's books in quantity at very good prices, and then, with a team, assign books for each of the families, to be wrapped and united with the other gifts for the family.

Posting to your neighborhood listserv may move some people not members of Immanuel to sign up for a family on our list. We want to expand the social media effort to get people in surrounding neighborhoods involved. If you can help, let Linda Serabian know.

A vignette. In a previous year we received a last-minute referral of a family who was evicted and all of their stuff was moved out, but they were allowed to stay for a few more days to celebrate Christmas in the empty apartment. Another group got them a tree and decorations, and we got them nice toys and a generous gift card. The little girls didn't seem to notice they had no furniture. One of the little girls wants to become a veterinarian, so we got her an 18" doll with a collection of doll clothes, including a veterinarian outfit, expertly produced by the XFAM sewing group Candy Levin, Laura Snow, and Brooke Roberts.

Christmas Families is a small yet so big part of transforming the world and comforting God's people. We make the world new by putting a toy into a child's hands to help her grasp the world in her mind, or by giving a stuffed tiger as a huggable companion and clothes to keep warm. There are billions of children in the world, so you might ask "What does it matter?" It matters very much to the children and parents in the family for whom you sign up to provide gifts.
