Episcopal/Anglican Alexandria, Virginia

THE FIFTH SUNDAY IN LENT

March 22, 2026

Holy Eucharist, Rite I, 8:00 a.m.

Page numbers refer to The Book of Common Prayer (the small red book with a cross).

THE WORD OF GOD

Opening Acclamation

p. 323

Celebrant: Bless the Lord who forgiveth all our sins;

People: His mercy endureth for ever.

The Collect for Purity

p. 323

Almighty God, unto whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnify thy holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Kyrie eleison

p. 324

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

The Collect of the Day

The Celebrant says to the people

The Lord be with you.

People: And with thy spirit.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

O Almighty God, who alone canst order the unruly wills and affections of sinful men: Grant unto thy people that they may love the thing which thou commandest, and desire that which thou dost promise; that so, among the sundry and manifold changes of the world, our hearts may surely there be fixed where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The First Lesson: Ezekiel 37:1-14

The hand of the Lord came upon me, and he brought me out by the spirit of the Lord and set me down in the middle of a valley; it was full of bones. He led me all around them; there were very many lying in the valley, and they were very dry. He said to me, "Mortal, can these bones live?" I answered, "O Lord God, you know." Then he said to me, "Prophesy to these bones, and say to them: O dry bones, hear the word of the Lord. Thus says the Lord God to these bones: I will cause breath to enter you, and you shall live. I will lay sinews on you, and will cause flesh to come upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and you shall live; and you shall know that I am the Lord."

So I prophesied as I had been commanded; and as I prophesied, suddenly there was a noise, a rattling, and the bones came together, bone to its bone. I looked, and there were sinews on them, and flesh had come upon them, and skin had covered them; but there was no breath in them. Then he said to me, "Prophesy to the breath, prophesy, mortal, and say to the breath: Thus says the Lord God: Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live." I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood on their feet, a vast multitude.

Then he said to me, "Mortal, these bones are the whole house of Israel. They say, 'Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost; we are cut off completely.' Therefore prophesy, and say to them, Thus says the Lord God: I am going to open your graves, and bring you up from your graves, O my people; and I will bring you back to the land of Israel. And you shall know that I am the Lord, when I open your graves, and bring you up from your graves, O my people. I will put my spirit within you, and you shall live, and I will place you on your own soil; then you shall know that I, the Lord, have spoken and will act," says the Lord.

The Word of the Lord

Response: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 130 De profundis

- 1 Out of the depths have I called to you, O Lord;
Lord, hear my voice; *
let your ears consider well the voice of my supplication.
- 2 If you, Lord, were to note what is done amiss, *
O Lord, who could stand?
- 3 For there is forgiveness with you; *
therefore you shall be feared.
- 4 I wait for the Lord; my soul waits for him; *
in his word is my hope.
- 5 My soul waits for the Lord,
more than watchmen for the morning, *
more than watchmen for the morning.
- 6 O Israel, wait for the Lord, *
for with the Lord there is mercy;
- 7 With him there is plenteous redemption, *
and he shall redeem Israel from all their sins.

The Holy Gospel: John 11:1-45

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to John Response: Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Now a certain man was ill, Lazarus of Bethany, the village of Mary and her sister Martha. Mary was the one who anointed the Lord with perfume and wiped his feet with her hair; her brother Lazarus was ill. So the sisters sent a message to Jesus, "Lord, he whom you love is ill." But when Jesus heard it, he said, "This illness does not lead to death; rather it is for God's glory, so that the Son of God may be glorified through it." Accordingly, though Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus, after having heard that Lazarus was ill, he stayed two days longer in the place where he was.

Then after this he said to the disciples, "Let us go to Judea again." The disciples said to him, "Rabbi, the Jews were just now trying to stone you, and are you going there again?" Jesus answered, "Are there not twelve hours of daylight? Those who walk during the day do not stumble, because they see the light of this world. But those who walk at night stumble, because the light is not in them." After saying this, he told them, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but I am going there to awaken him." The disciples said to him, "Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will be all right." Jesus, however, had been speaking about his death, but they thought that he was referring merely to sleep. Then Jesus told them plainly, "Lazarus is dead. For your sake I am glad I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him." Thomas, who was called the Twin, said to his fellow disciples, "Let us also go, that we may die with him."

When Jesus arrived, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb four days. Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, some two miles away, and many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary to console them about their brother. When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went and met him, while Mary stayed at home. Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. But even now I know that God will give you whatever you ask of him." Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again." Martha said to him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day." Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?" She said to him, "Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one coming into the world."

When she had said this, she went back and called her sister Mary, and told her privately, "The Teacher is here and is calling for you." And when she heard it, she got up quickly and went to him. Now Jesus had not yet come to the village, but was still at the place where Martha had met him. The Jews who were with her in the house, consoling her, saw Mary get up quickly and go out. They followed her because they thought that she was going to the tomb to weep there. When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Lord, come and see." Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, "See how he loved him!" But some of them said, "Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?"

Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, "Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days." Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?" So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, "Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me." When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unbind him, and let him go."

Many of the Jews therefore, who had come with Mary and had seen what Jesus did, believed in him.

The Gospel of the Lord
People: Praise be to thee, O Christ.

Sermon: The Rev. Susan D. Parsons

The Nicene Creed p. 326

The Prayers of the People p. 328

Confession of Sin and Absolution p. 331

*Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against thee
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved thee with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of thy Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in thy will,
and walk in thy ways,
to the glory of thy Name. Amen.*

IMMANUEL CHURCH-ON-THE-HILL

Parish Notes
March 22, 2026

IN THE NAME OF JESUS CHRIST we welcome you to Immanuel Church-on-the-Hill!

Immanuel is an Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Virginia, and is part of the world-wide Anglican Communion. Immanuel was founded by the Virginia Theological Seminary. We are one parish that worships in two locations: the Zabriskie Chapel (3606 Seminary Road), and Immanuel Chapel (3737 Seminary Road) on the seminary grounds. Immanuel Chapel offers a fully-staffed nursery for our infant and toddler parishioners.

Visitors are encouraged to fill out a visitor card — located in the pews or display stands at the entrances of the chapels. Please give your card to an usher or place in the collection plate. Thank you.

For the latest information on our online worship service and to view a video of our most recent service, please visit our website (www.icoh.net).

Savino (all in Western Iraq). Rest eternal grant to them, O Lord, and let light perpetual shine upon them.

FINAL Forum Hour in Our Lenten Series TODAY:

Commending the Faith that is in Us: What might you say when someone asks what you believe?

In a world where Christian believers are surrounded by non-believers, skeptics, and truth seekers, believers will increasingly be asked what they believe, and why. Those inquiring will expect credible answers, yet many Christians fear they wouldn't know what to say, or even how to begin to engage these honest questions.

Join us at 11:15a.m. in the Welcome Center today for a reception, and then to hear the Rev. Dr. Sarah Coakley discuss The Resurrection and Atonement. All are welcome and encouraged to participate.

WEDNESDAYS IN THE WORLD with The Rev. Sarah Spurlock Biggs: March 25th

Join Mother Sarah this Wednesday, March 25th at 10 a.m. for coffee and fellowship at the Alexandria Pastry Shop. All are invited to attend.

Special Guest at Quiet Prayer March 25th: Father Martin Smith, well known to us as an experienced spiritual director and former religious superior, will be coming to the weekly Quiet Prayer session (in the Oratory Chapel, VTS) on Wednesday March 25, 5.15-6pm, to lead a ‘group spiritual direction’ for our parish and for VTS seminarians. He will take questions from the floor on the practice of prayer (and especially the prayer of silence), and help us to deepen our understanding of the importance of personal and group prayer as a parish. All are welcome (whether or not you are a regular attender of the Wednesday Quiet Prayer group).

SENIOR ADULT MINISTRY AND FELLOWSHIP APRIL ACTIVITIES:

TRIP to VISIT ST. ROSE OF LIMA: Join us for a trip to Gaithersburg, MD on Wednesday, April 22 to visit St. Rose of Lima Catholic Church. Christine Jeffery, Director of Adult Education and Adult Faith Formation, will provide thoughts on the varied life of the parish and their sanctuary, designed by Immanuel parishioner Tom Kerns in 2006. Tom says, “The geometry of the sanctuary creates ‘open palms’ to hold 800 congregants in a light filled space infused in the artful use of many materials, including the reuse of a giant tree that was removed to allow for construction.” He looks forward to sharing the intimacy of this sacred space, which is about twice the size of Immanuel Chapel.

We will leave the Zabriskie parish hall at 9:30am for our 10:30am tour. Afterwards, we will have lunch at Copper Canyon. We plan to return to the Parish Hall around 2:00pm. Co-pay to ride in the van is $25. These trips with Tom are extremely popular, so please RSVP early for this event at karen.besser@gmail.com. Additional vans can be rented if the demand exists.

FOURTH TUESDAY BROWN BAG LUNCH: We will meet in the Parish Hall at 12:15pm on Tuesday, April 28, for our rescheduled program featuring a video of The Rt. Rev. Mariann Edgar Budde, Bishop of the Diocese of Washington, DC’s Mollegen Lecture “The Politics of Mercy”, delivered on February 3rd at the Virginia Theological Seminary. This film was originally scheduled for our February brown bag, but was cancelled due to weather concerns. Bring your own sandwich or salad, as drinks and dessert will be provided. No RSVP is necessary.

AS ALWAYS, friends and family are welcome to join all Senior Ministry and Fellowship activities.

ALTAR OF REPOSE: JUST NINE MORE NEEDED

If you can help us keep watch by staying in the Oratory Chapel in Immanuel for one hour during the Overnight Prayer Vigil, Maundy Thursday, April 2nd, please scan the code at left.

Simply stop, pray and keep watch during the night until 12 noon Good Friday.

Thank you.

IMMANUEL SPRING 2026 RETREAT: We welcome everyone to join us for Immanuel's first local contemplative retreat. Retreating is a restorative practice of Sabbath keeping. Join us as we explore a practice of holy rest and renewal, and ways to intentionally open ourselves to God's ever-presence in day-to-day life.

This retreat is for everyone! If you...

- have an interest in retreats, but are unable to take a weekend away;
- are not sure about retreats, and would like to try it out;
- are looking to learn about different contemplative practices; or
- love retreats and would like to take any and every opportunity to be on one ...this retreat is for you.

The retreat will be next Saturday, March 28, 2026, from 9am to 2pm, at Bicentennial Hall, on the campus of Virginia Theological Seminary. A light lunch will be served.

If you are interested, please scan the QR code at left to register for the retreat. The registration deadline is next Monday, March 23. Please reach out to Katherine Maas at katherinemaas@gmail.com with any questions.

NEW STORAGE FOR CHRISTMAS FAMILIES MINISTRY NEEDED

For the last 20 years since the fire at the Soergels' house, Christmas Families has been housed at 118 N Washington Street hosted by Christ Church. After many years of looking, Christ Church found a new tenant who will lease the entire building. We have been told that we can no longer use the space we've used over 30 years for rent-free.

We need to move next January and need 400-500 sq. ft. of minimally conditioned space, offering access on nights and weekends. Ideally, a location on the first floor that's easily accessible for loading and unloading. We do not have the budget to find a space that requires us to pay rent.

We ask everyone to let us know if they have any suggestions. Please contact Rich Hobson, richh777@gmail.com, or Linda Serabian, Serabian@somaarchitects.com. Thank you.

IN NEED OF CANDY OFFERINGS TO FILL EASTER EGGS: Please consider dropping off a bag or two of candy for the parish to use to fill empty plastic Easter Eggs for our annual Easter morning egg hunt. Each item should be individually wrapped (i.e. no loose jelly beans or gummy rabbits!). We are well-stocked on non-food items for the eggs, thanks to the generosity of Candy Levin!

Drop off your candy in the bin on the table outside of Rev. Sarah's office, starting today, Sunday.

SIGN-UP TO SERVE: IT'S EASY AND ONLINE:

Sign-up to Serve in our Sunday Services through May 2026 ONLINE — including the Altar of Repose for Maundy Thursday and Foreign Language Readers for the Feast of Pentecost — by visiting the landing page of our website at ICOH.net and clicking our Red SignUp Genius Button or scanning the QR code at right.

If you're a student planning to spend occasional weekends home, feel free to sign-up for a Sunday or two during the Lenten season, Easter, and the Feast of Pentecost only. Training for all lay ministries available upon request. THANK YOU for your participation!
