The Collect for Purity

p. 323

p. 324

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Kyrie eleison.

Lord, have mercy upon us. Kyrie eleison.

The Collect of the Day

Grant, we beseech thee, merciful God, that thy Church, being gathered together in unity by thy Holy Spirit, may manifest thy power among all peoples, to the glory of thy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the same Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

The First Lesson: Joshua 24:1-2a,14-18

Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and summoned the elders, the heads, the judges, and the officers of Israel; and they presented themselves before God. And Joshua said to all the people, "Thus says the Lord, the God of Israel:

"Now therefore revere the Lord, and serve him in sincerity and in faithfulness; put away the gods that your ancestors served beyond the River and in Egypt, and serve the Lord. Now if you are unwilling to serve the Lord, choose this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your ancestors served in the region beyond the River or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you are living; but as for me and my household, we will serve the Lord."

Then the people answered, "Far be it from us that we should forsake the Lord to serve other gods; for it is the Lord our God who brought us and our ancestors up from the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery, and who did those great signs in our sight. He protected us along all the way that we went, and among all the peoples through whom we passed; and the Lord drove out before us all the peoples, the Amorites who lived in the land. Therefore we also will serve the Lord, for he is our God."

The Word of the Lord

Response: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 34:15-22 Benedicam Dominum !

- 15 The eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous, *
and his ears are open to their cry.
- 16 The face of the Lord is against those who do evil, *
to root out the remembrance of them from the earth.
- 17 The righteous cry, and the Lord hears them *
and delivers them from all their troubles.
- 18 The Lord is near to the brokenhearted *
and will save those whose spirits are crushed.
- 19 Many are the troubles of the righteous, *
but the Lord will deliver him out of them all.
- 20 He will keep safe all his bones; *
not one of them shall be broken.
- 21 Evil shall slay the wicked, *
and those who hate the righteous will be punished.
- 22 The Lord ransoms the life of his servants, *
and none will be punished who trust in him.

The Epistle: Ephesians 6:10-20

Be strong in the Lord and in the strength of his power. Put on the whole armor of God, so that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For our struggle is not against enemies of blood and flesh, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers of this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places. Therefore take up the whole armor of God, so that you may be able to withstand on that evil day, and having done everything, to stand firm. Stand therefore, and fasten the belt of truth around your waist, and put on the breastplate of righteousness. As shoes for your feet put on whatever will make you ready to proclaim the gospel of peace. With all of these, take the shield of faith, with which you will be able to quench all the flaming arrows of the evil one. Take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

Pray in the Spirit at all times in every prayer and supplication. To that end keep alert and always persevere in supplication for all the saints. Pray also for me, so that when I speak, a message may be given to me to make known with boldness the mystery of the gospel, for which I am an ambassador in chains. Pray that I may declare it boldly, as I must speak.

The word of the Lord

Response: Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel: John 6:56-69

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to John Response: Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Jesus said, “Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood abide in me, and I in them. Just as the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever eats me will live because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven, not like that which your ancestors ate, and they died. But the one who eats this bread will live forever.” He said these things while he was teaching in the synagogue at Capernaum.

When many of his disciples heard it, they said, “This teaching is difficult; who can accept it?” But Jesus, being aware that his disciples were complaining about it, said to them, “Does this offend you? Then what if you were to see the Son of Man ascending to where he was before? It is the spirit that gives life; the flesh is useless. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life. But among you there are some who do not believe.” For Jesus knew from the first who were the ones that did not believe, and who was the one that would betray him. And he said, “For this reason I have told you that no one can come to me unless it is granted by the Father.”

Because of this many of his disciples turned back and no longer went about with him. So Jesus asked the twelve, “Do you also wish to go away?” Simon Peter answered him, “Lord, to whom can we go? You have the words of eternal life. We have come to believe and know that you are the Holy One of God.”

AFGHAN ASYLUM SEEKERS NEED TEMPORARY HOUSING This family, the Nasiris, recently arrived in Alexandria and are being helped by the Christ Church Refugee Ministry, a partner organization of the Immanuel Outreach Ministry. They are currently living in temporary housing on the VTS campus that will no longer be available after October 1. The family, consisting of a pediatric surgeon father, who worked for a Christian NGO in Afghanistan, and a mother and children aged three and one, are applying for asylum after entering the U.S. from our southern border. Their journey took them from Afghanistan to Brazil and then to the U.S. after an arduous trek on foot. If you know of any appropriate housing this family might be able to use temporarily, please contact Pierre Shostal (pshks@aol.com) or Linda Serabian (serabian@somaarchitects.com).

While the house for the Nasiri family is partially furnished, they don't have a dining room table. If anyone would be willing to donate a small table and four chairs, please let us know.

SEEKING MEMBERS FOR THE LAY COMMITTEE FOR OUR NEW SEMINARIAN

If you would like to serve on a small group that will meet with and support our new seminarian, Beatrice Osumba, please email the Rev. Susan Parsons, at sparsons@icoh.net.

Join the Immanuel Tables at The First-Ever REGIONAL FUNDRAISING DINNER OF THE VIRGINIA INTERFAITH CENTER FOR PUBLIC POLICY (VICPP) Sunday, September 22nd at 5:00 p.m. at VTS

Immanuel has long been active in VICPP, which works to see that our state does business in ways that accord with the teachings of the major religions. There will be awards, an inspiring speaker, possibly from Alfred Street Baptist Church, and the All Dulles Area Muslim Society Youth Choir will perform a few selections. Immanuel is sponsoring two tables of 10, and parishioners (and their guests) can attend for a modest $25 contribution to VICPP. It will be a great opportunity to support an effective group and to meet fellow supporters from other local places of worship. Immanuel's seats are first-come, first-serve — let Jamie Conrad know if you'd like one or more, or if you have questions at (jwc58@comcast.net). Hope to see you there!

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES: GODLY PLAY

This fall we are expanding Godly Play to serve kids aged 8-11 as well as the youngsters aged 4-7. To serve more children we will need more helpers! Would you like to join our dedicated crew? We need volunteers ages 14 and up (including adults). In Godly Play we help children to experience God through the stories that are foundational to our faith, and to think about the nature of God in their lives.

Storytellers guide the children through the week's story and facilitate their exploration of the story through "I wonder" questions. Immanuel is hosting an in-person Storyteller training on Saturday, September 7th, from 8am-5:30pm — the day before Godly Play begins. If you're interested in participating in the training, email Rev. Sarah by August 30th to reserve a spot. (Please note that Storytellers must be 18 or older.)

Greeters are an important part of the Godly Play experience. They help to welcome the children, prepare them to come into the Godly Play space and support the Storyteller and the circle of children throughout the session. If you're interested in serving in this role, please contact Rev. Sarah for more information. (Please note that Greeters must be at least 14 years old).

Those who have volunteered for this program for a while, find it can spark wondering questions for us, and enrich our own faith journeys. If you would like to learn more, please contact the Rev. Sarah Spurlock Biggs (sspurlockbiggs@icoh.net) and Sarah Glassco (glasscos@gmail.com)

CREATION CARE: Immanuel’s Creation Care Ministry announces the "Season of Creation 2024," which Episcopalians and other Christians around the world are honoring from September 1 through October 4. It is a time to reflect, learn, and act as people of faith to care for and respect all living things with whom we share our planet. Creation Care offers the following prayer for all of us to use between now and October 6. Immanuel will celebrate with a Creation-themed worship service on October 6.

Our Care of Creation Prayer

O God, Creator of heaven and earth, you allowed life to evolve, and you love the natural world:
each plant and animal, each mountain and river, each ray of sunshine, wave of water, and breath of fresh air.
In our beginning, you commanded us to care for your creation;
open our eyes to see the goodness of the earth;
train our hearts to respect all creation as a gift from you;
and shape our lives to behave in ways that are loving toward all creatures great and small, for you, God, made them all. Amen.

Fall Retreat “NEW PEOPLE IN OLD STORIES” Holy Cross Abbey, Berryville, Virginia November 8-10

In the midst of our overly scheduled lives full of many responsibilities, it is helpful to take time for a spiritual retreat – to be aware of God’s presence, to reflect on the course of our lives, and to ask what is God asking us to do in our daily lives. The Rev. Dr. Frank Wade, our retreat leader, will assist us in this process by focusing his programs on scripture.

For over four thousand years Judaism has been enriched by an approach to scripture known as midrash, a Hebrew word meaning “to seek or inquire.” It involves raising questions the biblical text does not address. The earliest known inquiry was “Why didn’t Adam talk Eve out of eating the apple?” While that might not be a compelling question for our day, the discovery of the original midrash group is relevant. They found that by carefully exploring questions ‘off the grid’ of the biblical text, they were encountering God in new ways. During our time together we will use this ancient practice which relies on imagination as well as scholarship to seek new insights into familiar Bible stories.

The Rev. Dr. Frank Wade is well known to Immanuelites as he serves as one of our priest associates and shares insights through occasional Sunday sermons and forums. His professional work includes a book on marriage, The Art of Being Together, which is in its third printing. Church Publishing Company released his second book, Transforming Scripture, in 2008. His third book, Biblical Fracking: Midrash for the Modern Christian, was published in 2019. He is an adjunct faculty member at Virginia Theological Seminary in Alexandria and has taught Pastoral Theology at both General and Virginia Seminaries. He has served as Interim Dean of Washington National Cathedral and Interim Dean of Students at Virginia Seminary. In addition to the program sessions, the Rev. Dr. Wade will be available for one-on-one conversations.

The retreat will be held at Holy Cross Abbey in the foothills of Blue Mountains by the Shenandoah River on a 1,200-acre farm near Berryville, Virginia, where Cistercian monks have been praying seven times a day since 1950. The monks observe silence at all times to aid reflection, prayer, and listening to God. During our retreat, long periods of time will be devoted to silence. For more information about Holy Cross Abbey, consult their website, <https://www.virginiatrappists.org>. The Abbey is an hour and fifteen-minute drive from Alexandria.

The retreat will begin Friday afternoon, November 8, shortly before the evening meal and will end after the noon meal on Sunday, November 10. There will be ample time for worship, prayer, and exploring the outdoors as weather permits.

The $350.00 registration fee includes all materials, comfortable accommodations, individual rooms each with a bathroom, and all meals. Registration forms are in the bulletin and are available on the Immanuel website https://www.immanuel-on-the-hill.org/uploads/7/4/6/1/74619583/fall_retreat_registration_form_2024.pdf. Please submit your registration form and check to the church office, 3606 Seminary Road, Alexandria, VA. 22304 by Friday, September 27.

Two scholarships given in memory of Charles Willis are available; please contact the rector to request scholarship assistance. If you receive a scholarship, please complete a registration form and indicate that you have a scholarship.

If you have questions about retreat logistics, contact Mary Ann Rehnke, mfrb2695@gmail.com. Participants needing a ride to the Abbey or those wishing to volunteer to provide a ride may contact the retreat carpooling coordinator, Katherine Maas, katherinemaas@gmail.com.
