

TODAY for the EYC (EPISCOPAL YOUTH COMMUNITY) : Breakfast Club and Youth-Only Coffee Hour! Jr. High EYC Breakfast Club – All youth in 6th, 7th and 8th grade are welcome to join us in the Fairchild Room for our very first Breakfast Club of the year for Junior High students, immediately following this Eucharist.

At the Same Time : All other EYC Youth are invited to join us today for a Youth-only Coffee Hour held in the EYC Room (located downstairs at the end of the hall) immediately after this Eucharist. The coffee hour is just that: an hour for you all to have a space to hang out and simply enjoy each other's company. A Keurig will be available with various types of beverages and a few items to munch on.

EYC EUCHARIST IN THE ORCHARD and APPLE PICKING NEXT SUNDAY, OCTOBER 14th : Next Sunday, the EYC will travel to Stribling Apple Orchard, Markham, Virginia to celebrate the Eucharist in the orchard, enjoy a picnic luncheon, and pick apples. We will leave from the Zabriskie parking lot by 9:30 a.m. All are asked to please wear appropriate outdoor clothing, and bring money for any apples they wish to keep. Immanuel will provide the picnic lunch and beverages. Parents are invited and encouraged to join us! RSVPs are kindly requested by October 10 so that we can better plan for food and transportation. PLEASE RSVP to either The Rev. John E. Hogg at jhogg@icoh.net or Jeannie Cummins Eisenhour at jceconsulting@comcast.net . First-timers are strongly encouraged to join us. We had such a wonderful time last year, and look forward to seeing all of you — and a few new faces — in the Orchard next Sunday morning.

The Collect of the Day

Almighty and everlasting God, you are always more ready to hear than we to pray, and to give more than we either desire or deserve: Pour upon us the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid, and giving us those good things for which we are not worthy to ask, except through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ our Savior; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen

The First Lesson: Genesis 2:18-24

The Lord God said, "It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a helper as his partner." So out of the ground the Lord God formed every animal of the field and every bird of the air, and brought them to the man to see what he would call them; and whatever the man called every living creature, that was its name. The man gave names to all cattle, and to the birds of the air, and to every animal of the field; but for the man there was not found a helper as his partner. So the Lord God caused a deep sleep to fall upon the man, and he slept; then he took one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh. And the rib that the Lord God had taken from the man he made into a woman and brought her to the man. Then the man said,

"This at last is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; this one shall be called Woman, for out of Man this one was taken."

Therefore a man leaves his father and his mother and clings to his wife, and they become one flesh.

Psalm 8 Domine, Dominus noster

- 1 O Lord our Governor, *
how exalted is your Name in all the world!
- 2 Out of the mouths of infants and children *
your majesty is praised above the heavens.
- 3 You have set up a stronghold against your adversaries, *
to quell the enemy and the avenger.
- 4 When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, *
the moon and the stars you have set in their courses,
- 5 What is man that you should be mindful of him? *
the son of man that you should seek him out?
- 6 You have made him but little lower than the angels; *
you adorn him with glory and honor;

Ask for a Children's Bulletin and You'll See!

Parents and guardians, please don't forget to email a photo of your child/youth member of Immanuel five days before her/his birthday to apowell@icoh.net!

Each week Immanuel prints service bulletins just for kids! We have a junior bulletin for children aged 3-6 and an advanced bulletin for mature youth aged 7-12. Both versions offer fun, engaging, word games, pictures and puzzles to help kids learn each Sunday's gospel lesson. Since early this year, we've announced your child's birthday and would love to post a photo too.

So remember kids, when the adult who brings you to church gets handed a bulletin, make sure to ask an Usher for your own — and a box of crayons.

The Epistle: Hebrews 1:1-4; 2:5-12

Long ago God spoke to our ancestors in many and various ways by the prophets, but in these last days he has spoken to us by a Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom he also created the worlds. He is the reflection of God's glory and the exact imprint of God's very being, and he sustains all things by his powerful word. When he had made purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, having become as much superior to angels as the name he has inherited is more excellent than theirs.

Now God did not subject the coming world, about which we are speaking, to angels. But someone has testified somewhere, "What are human beings that you are mindful of them, or mortals, that you care for them? You have made them for a little while lower than the angels; you have crowned them with glory and honor, subjecting all things under their feet." Now in subjecting all things to them, God left nothing outside their control. As it is, we do not yet see everything in subjection to them, but we do see Jesus, who for a little while was made lower than the angels, now crowned with glory and honor because of the suffering of death, so that by the grace of God he might taste death for everyone. It was fitting that God, for whom and through whom all things exist, in bringing many children to glory, should make the pioneer of their salvation perfect through sufferings. For the one who sanctifies and those who are sanctified all have one Father. For this reason Jesus is not ashamed to call them brothers and sisters, saying, "I will proclaim your name to my brothers and sisters, in the midst of the congregation I will praise you."

The Holy Gospel: Mark 10:2-16

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Mark Response: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Some Pharisees came, and to test Jesus they asked, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?” He answered them, “What did Moses command you?” They said, “Moses allowed a man to write a certificate of dismissal and to divorce her.” But Jesus said to them, “Because of your hardness of heart he wrote this commandment for you. But from the beginning of creation, ‘God made them male and female.’ ‘For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh.’ So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate.” Then in the house the disciples asked him again about this matter. He said to them, “Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her; and if she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery.”

People were bringing little children to him in order that he might touch them; and the disciples spoke sternly to them. But when Jesus saw this, he was indignant and said to them, “Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs. Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it.” And he took them up in his arms, laid his hands on them, and blessed them.

The Prayers of the People

Jesus promises us that when we are gathered, God is among us. Here in the presence of God, let us lift up our prayers, remembering our own needs, the needs of those whom we love, and the needs of the world, Amen

We pray for our Church, for churches everywhere, and for all who seek to know God, that each may show strength in showing forth Christ’s love for all persons, Amen

We pray for our families, our friends, and our neighbors, for those whom we know and love and those who are still strangers to us, Amen

We pray for all those who suffer: the poor, the hungry, and those suffering from disease, especially those whose names are listed in our service bulletin, Amen

We pray for those who are sick, for those who have died, and for those who mourn. Amen

We give thanks for this day and invite all those prayers you wish to add, either loud or silently. Amen

THE HOLY COMMUNION

The Offertory Anthem: “They’ll know we are Christians by our love”
Immanuel’s Angels Children’s Choir

St. Brendan’s

We are one in the Sprit; we are one in the Lord
We are one in the Sprit; we are one in the Lord
And we pray that all unity, May one day be restored.

Chorus:

And they’ll know we are Christians, by our love, by our love
Yes, they’ll know we are Christians, by our love.

We will walk with each other; we will walk hand in hand
We will walk with each other; we will walk hand in hand
And together we’ll spread the news that God is in our land

Chorus:

We will work with each other; we will work side by side
We will work with each other; we will work side by side
And we’ll guard each other’s dignity, and save each others pride.
