In respect for those wishing to pray before the service begins, the congregation is asked to remain as quiet as possible.

Welcome to Immanuel

Welcome to Immanuel Church-on-the-Hill as we celebrate God coming among us in the birth of Jesus Christ. We celebrate the miracle that the God of the universe could find our flesh a fitting — even noble — home.

Wherever you are on your life's journey, you are welcome here among this group of fellow seekers and pilgrims. If you are looking for a Christian community where you can ask questions and explore your faith, and where you can contribute your skills and passions towards God's glory and the healing of a hurting world, Immanuel might be for you. If you are looking for a community where we bring our current experiences into conversation with Holy Scripture and our ancient liturgy, perhaps Immanuel could be the community for which you are searching. We would be proud to welcome you!

May God bless you tonight and always.

MUSIC FOR CHRISTMAS EVE

Es ist ein Ros entsprungen

Sung by The Immanuel Choir

Music by Johannes Brahms, arranged by Robin Doveton

Lo, how a rose e'er blooming
Lo, how a Rose e'er blooming from tender stem hath sprung!
Of Jesse's lineage coming, as mem of old have sung,
It came, a floweret bright,
Amid the cold of winter, when half spent was the night.

Ich steh an deiner Krippenhier

THE BRASS QUARTET Music by J.S. Bach, arranged by Ralf Behrens

Ding Dong! Merrily on high Text: G.R. Woodward, 16th century French tune harmonized by Charles Wood
The Immanuel Choir and The Brass Quartet

Ding dong! Merrily on high In heav'n the bells are ringing. Ding dong! Verily the sky Is riv'n with angel singing. Gloria, Hosanna in excelsis! Gloria, Hosanna in excelsis! E'en so here below, below, Let steeple bells be swungen, And "Io, io, io!"	By priest and people sungen. Gloria, Hosanna in excelsis! Gloria, Hosanna in excelsis! Pray you, dutifully prime Your matin chime, ye ringers. May you beautifully rime Your evetime song, ye singers. Gloria, Hosanna in excelsis! Gloria, Hosanna in excelsis!

The road ahead A Christmas song of Gabriel and Mary
Sung by Sudie McGahuey and Cierra Byrd, mezzo-sopranos

Text: Doe Trembath, Music: Ian Kellam

Gabriel:
If I were to ask you Mary,
to walk with me tonight,
If that's what I asked you Mary,
what would you say?

Gabriel:
If I were to show you Mary,
the road that lies ahead
If that's what I showed Mary
You'd listen to what I said.

Mary:
I cannot walk alone with you,
I don't know who you are
In your shining robes
with your eyes of fire
You dazzle like a star.

Mary:
What road is this you're talking of?
This riddle's not for me!

Gabriel:
If I were to tell your Mary,
that God had chosen you
If that's what I told you Mary
What would you do?

Gabriel:
It's the road that leads to Bethlehem,
then on to Calvary.

Mary:
There is no truth in what you say
How could there possibly be?
For I am a simple country maid
You're making fun of me!

Mary:
If you cannot see the future, in truth,
God speaks through you
And I must do whatever he wills,
To make it all come true.

Gabriel and Mary:
So let us walk together here,
and talk of things to be,
Of a baby born in a humble shed,
of a star, and wise men three.

Choir Anthem: “My Lord has come”

Will Todd

Shepherds, called by angels, called by love and angels:
No place for them but a stable. My Lord has come.
Sages, searching for stars, searching for love in heaven;
No place for them but a stable. My Lord has come.
His love will hold me, his love will cherish me, love will cradle me.
Lead me, lead me to see him, sages and shepherds and angels;
No place for me but a stable. My Lord has come.

The Second Lesson: Titus 3:4-7

But when the kindness and love of God our Savior appeared, he saved us, not because of righteous things we had done, but because of his mercy. He saved us through the washing of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us generously through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that, having been justified by his grace, we might become heirs having the hope of eternal life.

The Holy Gospel: Luke 2:1-20 (King James version)

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Luke.
People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be taxed. (And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.) And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city. And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judaea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; (because he was of the house and lineage of David) to be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child. And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered. And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

Pause to honor the great mystery of the Incarnation.

And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid. And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger. And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men. And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us. And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger. And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child. And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds. But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart. And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

Hymn 112 “In the bleak midwinter” verse 4 (see text below)

Cranham

What can I give him, poor as I am?
If I were a shepherd, I would bring a lamb;
if I were a wise man, I would do my part;
yet what I can I give him—give my heart.

The Great Thanksgiving: Eucharistic Prayer B

p. 367

The musical notation consists of four staves, each with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The lyrics are written below the notes. The first staff is for the Celebrant and the People, with the lyrics: "The Lord be with you. And al - so with you." The second staff is for the Celebrant and the People, with the lyrics: "Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord." The third staff is for the Celebrant, with the lyrics: "Let us give thanks to the Lord our God." The fourth staff is for the People, with the lyrics: "It is right to give him thanks and praise."

The Celebrant proceeds:

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. Because you gave Jesus Christ, your only Son, to be born for us; who by the mighty power of the Holy Spirit, was made perfect Man of the flesh of the Virgin Mary his mother; so that we might be delivered from the bondage of sin, and receive power to become your children.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus (from A Mass for Immanuel)

Jane Tavernier

(Please stand, kneel or sit, as you are able.)

Sanctus

14 Ho - ly ho - ly ho - ly Lord God of pow-er and might Hea-ven and Earth are

19 filled with your glo-ry, Ho- san - na in the high - est, Ho-san - na Ho- san - na Ho

24 san - na in the high-est Bles-sed is He, Bles-sed is He who comes in the name of the 29 Lord Ho- san - na, Ho- san - na, Ho-san - na in the high - est.

The Celebrant continues:

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world.

In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

Celebrant and People

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with the ever-blessed Virgin Mary, blessed Joseph and all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

People and Celebrant

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Given us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen

Celebrant: Alleluia, Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us

Response: Therefore let us keep the feast, Alleluia.

Communion Anthem: “Wonder in a manger”

Jane Tavernier

The shepherds saw Him lying in the manger,
With awe and wonder they knelt, their heads bowed low.
The wise men too, in joy and supplication, Laid their gifts before the tiny child.
They knew He loved them, their humble adoration
Came to embrace eternal joy, salvation. Alleluia!
We too are shepherds, seeking that which only Christ
Can give to broken hearts, the lost, His gift of love,
Come to that manger, and find our God Incarnate.
Lay your sorrows at His feet, and your trust in His hands.
Eternal life, embodied in that manger, His gift to us, forever and Amen.

Hymn 89 “It came upon the midnight clear”

Carol

Communion Anthem: “O Holy Night” Emily Riley, soprano

Post Communion Prayer

After Communion, the Celebrant says
Let us pray.

Celebrant and People

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food
in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Carol of Adoration Hymn 111 “Silent night” (Please kneel, as you are able.)

Stille Nacht

The acolytes will assist the congregation in lighting candles during the singing of this hymn.

The Christmas Blessing

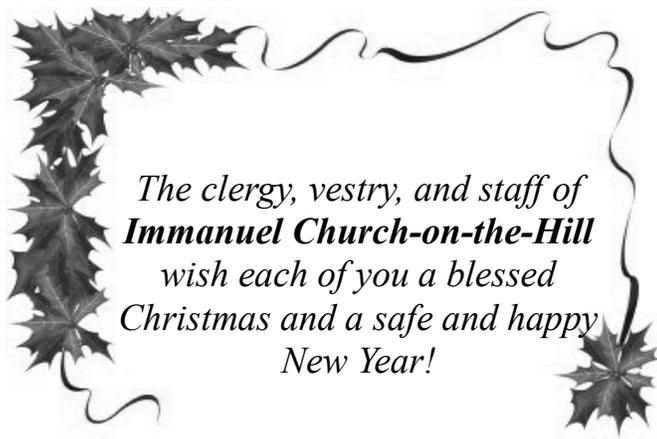

May Christ, who by his Incarnation gathered into one all things earthly and heavenly, fill you with his joy and peace; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.
